2007 Sun Devils a Real Mystery

Coach Dennis Erickson Takes Over!

By David Kukulski

Who knows how good the Sun Devils will be in 2007?

A new head coach.

Almost a complete turnover in the coaching staff.

A returning quarterback who looked terrific as a freshman but only so-so as a sophomore, although he was injured for part of the year.

A solid group of running backs, but an unproven receiving corps.

An experienced, talented offensive line with very little depth.

A defensive line in transition.

Talent but uncertainty at linebacker. The same in the secondary. Ditto for the kicking game.

Under Dirk Koetter, ASU never seemed to find its way. When Frank Kush was the coach, the Sun Devils were good just about every year. Some years, they were great.

With the likes of Darryl Rogers, John Cooper and Bruce Snyder running the show, the Devils were at least an elite team every once in a while. Under Koetter, ASU wasn't good at all in Pac-10 showdowns. In fact, quite often, they weren't even competitive.

With a title-winning Division 1 coach like Dennis Erickson calling the shots, will Arizona State become a constant contender for the Pac-10 crown? How ASU plays this year should give us some clues.

The key man on offense, once again, figures to be signal caller Rudy Carpenter. Now a 6-2, 199-pound junior, Carpenter led the nation in passing efficiency as a freshman, throwing for 2,273 yards and 17 scores. Last season, with a very young group of receivers, he finished with 2,523 yards and 23 TDs, while throwing 14 interceptions. His completion percentage dipped from 68% in 2005 to 55% in 2006.

Keegan Herring, a former all-stater from Peoria High School, has blistered the opposition for 1,419 yards rushing in his first two years as a Sun Devil (Paynter Pics).

The running game is definitely a strength. Senior Ryan Torain (6-1, 213) was even better than advertised as a junior college transfer. He rushed for a whopping 1,229 yards and seven six-pointers in his first year in Tempe.

And there's quality depth with junior Keegan Herring (5-10, 186) and sophomore Dimitri Nance (5-10, 204). Another JC transfer – soph Jarrell Woods (5-10, 210) – could contribute right away. Herring scampered for 549 yards and six touchdowns in a backup role last year. Nance played as a true freshman, ran for 229 yards and really began to push for playing time with an outstanding spring practice.

ASU has a bevy of young receivers, but which ones will shine this fall? Both Brandon Smith (6-2, 200) and Kyle Williams (5-10, 185) – a couple of sophomores – appear headed for stardom. Another sophomore – former Moon Valley standout Chris McGaha (6-1, 189) – isn't far behind.

Others expected to grab some passes for the Sun Devils are the always-present Rudy Burgess, junior Mike Jones, junior Nate Kimbrough and converted running back Rodney Glass.

Erickson wants Burgess to close out his collegiate career as a receiver. He has played running back and cornerback for ASU in the past. Jones actually led the Sun Devil wide-outs last year with 20 receptions for 318 yards. Kimbrough is coming back from torn ACL surgery. And Glass won the California state championship in the 100 meters a couple of years ago. He's among the fastest players in all of college football.

There's adequate depth at tight end, but the loss of Zach Miller to the NFL will hurt. He opted to skip his senior year and play for pay on Sundays. His older brother Brent Miller (6-5, 237) inherits the job; he was the starting H-Back last year, snagging 11 aerials for 173 yards. Others to watch include Jovon Williams, Tyrice Thompson, Dane Guthrie, Lance Evbuomwan and Brady Conrad. Are any of these guys playmakers?

Up front, the Devils have plenty of size and experience, but not enough proven backup players. Seniors Mike Pollak (6-4, 292), Brandon Rodd (6-4, 303), Zach Krula

(6-7, 320), Robert Gustavis (6-3, 303) and Julius Oriekwu (6-7, 317) will join forces with junior Paul Fanaika (6-6, 359) and sophomores Richard Tuitu'u (6-4, 350) and Shawn Lauvao (6-3, 307) to open holes for the vaunted ASU running game and provide protection for Carpenter and friends in the passing game.

Defensively, the line lost a couple of starters to graduation. Not only must Erickson replace Jordan Hill and Kyle Caldwell, he has to upgrade this group.

Back and ready to go are returning regulars Dexter Davis (6-4, 247, So.) and Mike Marquardt (6-4, 295, Sr.). JC All-American Luis Vazquez (6-3, 247) is competing with holdover Kellen Mills (6-3, 243) at a defensive end post, while junior David Smith (6-3, 280) might be the game one starter opposite Marquardt at defensive tackle. Who knows if any of the other recruits can move up the depth chart quickly and make a major contribution this fall?

Based on spring practice, the starting backers could be recent Phoenix College recruit Morris Wooten (6-1, 237, Jr.) in the middle and sophomores Ryan McFoy (6-2, 201) and Travis Goethel (6-2, 229) on the outside.

It's likely that a number of players – including Gerald Munns, Mike Nixon, Robert James and Chad Lindsey – will see significant action while the coaches sort out which players can do the job.

In the secondary, Josh Barrett is the pace-setter. This 6-3, 231-pound safety is a terrific player with absolutely unbelievable speed. Justin Tryon (5-10, 180, Sr.) is slated to start at one corner, while juniors Troy Nolan (6-2, 204) and Jeremy Payton (6-1, 210) will battle for playing time at the other safety slot. The corner position opposite Tryon is unsettled, so it's possible that heralded freshman Omar Bolden (5-11, 200) could be a factor there.

For ASU to have much success this year, junior field general Rudy Carpenter must avoid injuries and be consistent throwing the football (Paynter Pics).

Senior Jonathan Johnson averaged 41.5 yards per punt last year and he's back.

However, a talented but unproven freshman, Thomas Weber, is the new placekicker.

Just about anything could happen this year. I think the Devils could finish anywhere from third to eighth in the Pac-10.

Safety Josh Barrett, back for his senior campaign, figures to be a high NFL pick in the months ahead (Paynter Pics).

Hamilton, Chandler Ranked 1-2! Brophy, Mt. View, Desert Vista Next

For years, the city of Mesa dominated "big school" football in the state of Arizona. In fact, 12 of the 17 5A champions from 1986-2002 hailed from Mesa. Mountain View alone captured titles in 1986, 1993, 1996, 1997, 1999 and 2002.

But the 2006 campaign certainly signaled a change. Chandler's three high schools – Basha, Chandler and Hamilton – all advanced to the state semifinals, a truly remarkable achievement. And Hamilton topped Mountain View, 34-15, in the 5A-1 finale.

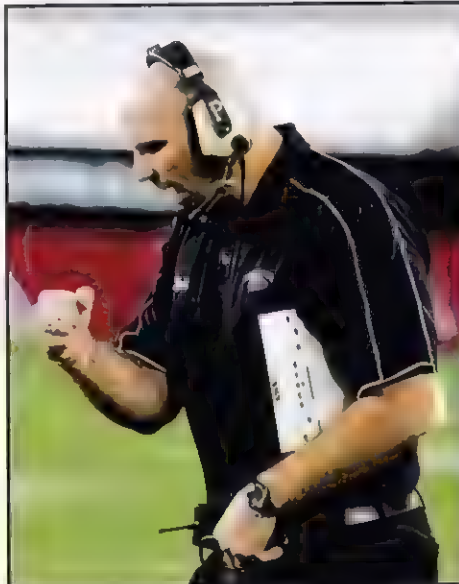

So is this a bump in the road or has a shift in power taken place? Maybe the 2007 season will help answer that question.

Without a doubt, HAMILTON is now Arizona's premiere 5A-1 football program. First under the guidance of John Wrenn and now with Steve Belles at the helm, the Huskies are title contenders every year. Hamilton has played in the large classification championship game five of the last six years, winning three state crowns.

Watch for more of the same from the Huskies in '07, with 41 lettermen back from last year's 13-1 unit. Headliners figure to be Covaughn DeBoskie, Gerrell Robinson and Patrick Jamison.

DeBoskie, a 6-0, 192-pound running back-cornerback, is being heavily recruited by most major college powers. He ran for 1,300 yards last year and, provided he stays healthy, should be absolutely stunning as a senior. He has 4.43 speed in the 40.

Robinson, who made a verbal commitment to the University of Arizona last spring, is another remarkable player. At 6-5 and 220 pounds, he'll set up shop at quarterback and free safety. Watch for Robinson to make plenty of big plays for Belles and the Huskies.

Jamison (6-5, 275) anchors the Hamilton offensive line from his tackle position. He has good speed and will team with fellow seniors Kyland Resor (5-11, 240), Jason Meyer (6-2, 220) and Chris Veto (6-0, 200) to open holes for DeBoskie and provide protection for Robinson.

Belles welcomes back a total of 10 starters and has quality help on the way from last fall's undefeated (9-0) junior varsity.

Other Huskies to keep your eye on are LB Elliott Harper (6-2, 225, Sr.), LB Zack Moore (5-10, 185, Sr.), FB Nathan Jeffery (5-10, 190, Sr.), SS/LB Rueben Robinson (6-3, 215, Jr.), WB/CB Andrew Terrell (5-11, 180, Jr.), LB Anthony Jones (6-1, 200, Jr.), QB/WB J.P. Peters (5-10, 190, Sr.), WR Michael Williams (6-0, 175, Sr.), WR Celeve DeBoskie (6-0, 170, Jr.), LB/SS Matt Helm (6-0, 190, Jr.) and RB Dante Alexander (5-11, 205, Jr.).

There's certainly no shortage of talent at CHANDLER either. Veteran Coach Jim Ewan has the Wolves playing like champions. He'll miss Cameron Jordan, a talented two-way lineman who has moved on to the University of California.

But another Jordan is back. Senior TE/WR Dion Jordan (6-6, 215) returns and should be one of the better receivers in the state. As a junior, he grabbed 54 passes for 804 yards and 13 scores in 2006. He possesses 4.5 speed. We thought so much of his game-by-game production that we named Dion Jordan our 2006 State Underclassman of the Year (see page 24AZ).

In fact, Chandler's skill-position players are outstanding. The quarterback should be senior Payton Lacivita (6-1, 170), who will be handing the ball to running backs Harold Bernard (6-1, 185, Sr.), Steven Jackson (5-10, 200, Sr.) and Bryce Lamb (6-1, 185, Jr.). Seniors Archie Woulard (6-3, 185) and Michael Dunn (5-11, 165) will flash their speed at the wideouts, while Bernard and honors candidates Marc Anthony (6-1, 185, Sr.) and Lee Peyton (5-8, 165, Sr.) will roam the secondary.

A key transfer is Kurt Mangum, a 6-2, 225-pounder. He'll see two-way duty at full-back and linebacker and should be good on both sides of the football.

Linemen Chandler Walker (5-11, 175), Sam Forni (6-0, 215), Alex Arndt (5-11, 200), Jose Perez (6-1, 225) and Gabe Haro (5-7, 240) will have a lot to say about Chandler's fortunes this year. All but Forni are seniors. The linebacking corps features Matt Ichrist (5-8, 180, Sr.) and Austin Johnson (5-9, 185, Sr.). Peyton could also see time at one of the backer posts.

The kicking chores will be handled by senior Romas Farfan (6-1, 170) and junior Sam White (5-11, 180).

This is a big year for the Wolves. Can they follow up last year's 11-2 finish with another trip to the state semifinals or better? We think they can and they will!

BROPHY PREP could be back in the finals again in 2007. After all, in his two years at Brophy, Coach Scooter Molander has guided the Broncos to 22 wins in 26 outings and a state title in 2005. Thirty-five letterwinners are back in uniform from last year's 9-3 squad and the graduates from an undefeated 2006 junior varsity (8-0-1) are raring to go.

"Mr. Everything" tailback Ray Polk could be the best player in Arizona this year. He's 6-1 and 190 pounds with 4.4 speed. He began the 2006 campaign in the Bronco secondary, but an injury to the starting running back gave him an opportunity to carry the pigskin. And he was on his way - 1,423 yards and 21 TDs.

Now he's a big-time college prospect at tailback, although he'll still spend some time at cornerback for Coach Molander this season.

The Broncos, for the third straight season, will have Bryan Berens at quarterback. This 6-2, 210-pound senior has been a big part of Brophy's recent success. He should have a terrific senior year. Senior FS/QB Drew Maggi (5-11, 175) is another highly-skilled Bronco. He'll work with Polk and standout CB Anthony Hooks (6-1, 165) in the defensive backfield.

Other defensive stalwarts are DT Billy Sanders (6-3, 235), DE Trenton Murphy (6-5, 220) and LB Mathew Padilla (5-9, 195).

Senior tackle Hank Mackey (6-2, 220) is the leader in the offensive line, while Sean Lieb (6-1, 190, Sr.) and Nick Nudo (5-11, 165, Sr.) pace the receiving corps.

Coach Tom Joseph will field another contender at MOUNTAIN VIEW. His 2007 club returns a great bunch of linemen, most notably senior OT David Hakes (6-4, 225). Altogether, 35 letterwinners are available from last year's 12-2 team. And a fine group of young players move up from an undefeated JV.

Bryan Berens is now in his third year at quarterback for the Brophy Prep Broncos. With Berens at quarterback and Ray Polk at running back, Brophy will vie for state honors in 2007.

Hakes will get plenty of help in the trenches from DT Buddy Koozer (6-2, 218), C/DT Keith Strickland (5-10, 235), OG Carlos Saenz (5-9, 205) and DE Jake Swisher (5-10, 205) – all seniors.

Swisher will also see time at running back. The kicking chores will be ably handled by senior Kyle Jennings (5-7, 145). Replacing the Nielsen twins (see page 16) won't be easy, but the Toros are never without talent and depth.

Don't be surprised if Coach Dan Hinds and his squad at DESERT VISTA make a big move this year. Allante Battle, Luke Matthews, Steven Figueroa, Zeb Togiai and Devon Kennard lead a solid band of 26 lettermen back for another run at the title. The Thunder finished with seven wins in 11 contests last year.

Battle might be the fastest player in Arizona prep football this year. He's 5-9 and 175 pounds with reported 4.36 speed. A star on the track this spring, he'll line up at wide receiver and defensive back for Desert Vista.

Matthews (6-2, 200) is also very quick and will contribute at wide receiver and free safety. TE Figueroa (6-5, 235) and DL Zeb Togiai (6-3, 255) are early commits to ASU. Kennard, a 6-3, 240-pound junior, is a rising star at running back and defensive end.

Junior Cole Pembroke (6-1, 200, Jr.) figures to start at quarterback and Conner Wilson (5-10, 245, Jr.) is a two-way standout on the line. Plenty of firepower for the Thunder.

BASHA improved to 11-3 in 2006, a real breakthrough season for the Bears. Watch for more of the same this fall.

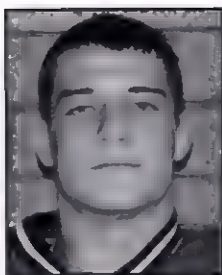

Coach Tim McBurney has 24 lettermen returning, although that group includes just four starters. Seniors Stephen Sabin (6-4, 275), Johnathon Fontes (6-4, 285) and Eric Herzick (6-2, 250) are returning regulars in the trenches. Another plus for the Bears is the availability of an experienced quarterback to run the offense. That would be senior Troy Graham, a 6-5, 210-pounder.

Carrying the pigskin will be seniors Quinn Evans (5-11, 175), Ra'Shad Huggins (5-11, 185), Kenny Vella (5-8, 175), Dusty Rush (5-8, 165), Chris Turas (5-6, 165) and junior AJ Williams (6-0, 195). Each of these players will also set up shop in the secondary and Evans has a chance to be one of the best defensive backs in Arizona in 2007.

Other notables include WR/FS Bo Mathewson (6-3, 205, Sr.), OG/FB Brian Rheault (5-11, 2005, Sr.), WR/DB Patrick Delgado (5-11, 185, Sr.), TE/LB Ryan McBurney (6-2, 195, Sr.), WR/DB Zack Alger (6-0, 175, Sr.), OG/DE Brandon Cobb (6-2, 205, Sr.) and OT/DT Trevor Bingham (6-3, 265, Sr.).

In his three-year tenure at Basha, McBurney's teams have won 25 of 35 contests. Not bad at all for a new school. And that winning percentage should look even better after the 2007 campaign.

Fourteen starters and a total of 40 letter-

men are back in uniform for Coach Jim Jones at RED MOUNTAIN. If they play to their potential, this could be a great year for Mountain Lions.

This year's edition of Red Mountain football should feature RB Jarison Johnson (5-11, 180), QB Taylor Perkins (6-1, 180), DL Anthony Smith (6-2, 220), DL Aaron Kleinpeter (6-2, 200), RB/DB Kolten Molina (5-10, 185), WR/DB Jimmy Sanchez (5-10, 180) and OL Colten Sinsabaugh (6-2, 230). All are twelfth-graders. This is a quick bunch, with Johnson and Molina possessing 4.6 speed. Even a couple of stalwarts from the defensive front – Smith and Kleinpeter – are in the 4.7 range.

The linebacking corps is paced by seniors Randy Service (6-0, 190), Nathan Acosta (5-10, 180) and Austin Mapes (5-11, 175). Colten Porter (6-0, 195) and Johnny Cuba (6-0, 230) are key contributors in the offensive line, while Sean Parsons (6-0, 200, Sr.) and Nathan Sare (5-10, 190, Sr.) are physical ball carriers. Topping last season's 7-4 record won't be easy, but Jones and company are certainly capable.

Gone is GILBERT QB Kyle Newhall-Caballero, a talented field general who put together some fantastic performances for the Tigers in 2006. In his place are a couple of juniors competing for playing time. Both Sean Miller (5-11, 175) and Kienan Turner (5-10, 170) are good players, but it's more than likely that the Gilbert offense will need time to mature this season.

A number of established skill-position performers should make the transition easier. That list includes TE/DL Drew Swartz (6-4, 235, Jr.), SE Anthony Duran (5-11, 175, Sr.), FB/LB Chase Beatty (5-10, 200, Sr.), TE/DL Justin Rutledge (6-3, 215, Sr.), TE/DE Tucker Schayler (6-2, 215, Sr.), FB/LB Trey Fulton (5-11, 205, Jr.), RB/DB Paul Perry (5-8, 170, Sr.), RB/DB Jeremy Mendoza (5-10, 170), SS/WR Steve Cavazos (6-0, 190), RB/DB Anthony McDaniel (5-8, 160) and WR/DB Justin Hyde (5-10, 160).

Swartz might be the best of the bunch. Beatty is a three-year starter. Duran, Perry and McDaniel are the quickest, each possessing 4.5 speed.

Coach Jesse Parker is relying on OG/DL Beau Gardner (6-0, 205) and OL/DL Cameron Gibson (6-2, 215) to produce in the lines. Altogether, 19 letterwinners are back from a unit that won five of 11 games in 2006.

Two-way standout James Morrison (5-11, 195) leads a formidable group of 23 letterwinners back for Coach Pat Farrell at ST. MARY'S. Morrison, a top-notch performer at halfback on offense and in the secondary on defense, has 4.6 speed.

Senior classmates TE/DE Klayton Kristick (6-2, 230), WB/LB James Hollins (6-2, 185), K Andy Schweikert (5-7, 135), OG/DT Sean Alvarado (5-8, 230), SE/DB Darius Mole (6-0, 185) and RB/DB Josh Hart (5-10, 160) are expected to play big roles in the Knights' fortunes this year.

Farrell has a remarkable 230-81-2 record at St. Mary's in his brilliant career. His 27th campaign promises to be another good one.

Seniors Trevor Stapp (6-3, 240) and JR Hamm (5-8, 185) are first-class returnees for Coach Gary Venturo at CORONA DEL SOL. Altogether, 19 Aztec lettermen are back and raring to go. Last year's club ended up 7-4.

For their part, Stapp plays center and defensive lineman. Hamm works at running back and defensive back.

Venturo is anticipating solid efforts from the following players: REC/DB Eric Benson (6-3, 185, Sr.), OL/DL Wyatt Cahill (6-3, 220, Sr.), REC/DB Elijah Chaing (5-10, 165, Sr.), REC/DB Lucas Starkey (6-0, 175, Sr.), FB/LB Kyle Schmella (5-10, 190, Sr.), QB/DB Nick Aldini (6-3, 180, Sr.), TE/LB Joey Kamper (6-3, 210, Sr.), OL/DL Josh Arviso (6-0, 200, Sr.), OL/DL Austin Cartwright (5-11, 220, Sr.), OL/DL Joe Pike (6-2, 240, Sr.), REC/DB Ryan Joseph (5-10, 175, Sr.), REC/DB Alex Tripp (5-10, 175, Sr.), OL/DL Tyler Giannonatti (6-0, 200, Jr.), TE/DL Luke Macchiaroli (6-2, 200, Jr.), RB/LB Evan Althiede (5-10, 185, Jr.), QB/DB Jon Pellant (5-9, 180, Jr.) and K/REC/DB Trevor Allen (5-10, 160, So.).

"We will be very young and may take our lumps early," says NORTH CANYON head mentor Brian Cole. "Hopefully, we'll be playing well towards the end of the season."

Not only are the Rattlers fighting through some experience issues, they're moving up to 5A-1 competition. They have been outstanding the last two years, winning 23 of 26 games and a state title in the 5A-2 ranks.

Coach Brian Cole welcomes back 15 lettermen – but only five returning regulars – from his 9-3 outfit of a year ago. The best of the bunch figures to be bruisers like OL/LB Matt Rios (6-1, 230, Sr.), TE/DE Giani Delacruz (6-1, 220, Sr.), OL/DL Sam Wilson (5-10, 225, Sr.), OL/DL Mike Goodlow (6-3, 270, Sr.) and OL/LB Demetri Katsofis (6-1, 210, Jr.).

Skill-position players of note are RB/DB Paul Dodson (6-1, 190), FB/DE Alex Johnson (6-1, 220) and REC/DB Rick Spinell (5-11, 175) – all juniors.

Centennial Tops in 5A-2

Marcos de Niza, Westview Challenge

Two of Centennial's returning stars – QB Scott Burgett (12) and OL Zack Schlink (75) – are featured on this play in the 5A-2 title game against Tucson Sunnyside (Paynter Pics).

Every year we send out a questionnaire to the varsity football coaches in the Phoenix Metro area, asking for information about their team for the upcoming season. And we also want to know what opposing squads should fare well.

That's how we put our rankings together. Well, this year in the 5A-2 classification, establishing a Preseason No. 1 team is very simple. The CENTENNIAL Coyotes, coming off their first football state championship season in school history, are the nearly unanimous choice of the coaches to win the title again. And why not?

Let's start with Coach Richard Taylor, our 2006 Arizona Coach of the Year (see page 1AZ). The veteran coach guided his Coyotes to a perfect 14-0 record last time out; he now sports a classy 100-54-3 mark in his 15 years at Centennial.

Of course, it doesn't hurt to have at least four Division 1 prospects scattered among 29 returning lettermen. Some youngsters from last year's 7-2 JV will also see playing time.

But the leaders should be QB Scott Burgett (6-2, 211), WR/CB/KR Jarrell Barbour (6-1, 185), TB/CB Jeff Hughes (5-11, 190) and OL Zack Schlink (6-5, 290) – all seniors.

Burgett won all-region honors last year, throwing for 2,000 yards and 27 touchdowns with only four interceptions.

"Barbour is the most gifted player on our team," says Taylor. He's a big-time prospect as both a wideout and defensive back.

Hughes was also an all-region pick on offense, running for 1,700 yards and 25 scores. On defense, he was a first-team all-stater.

Finally, Schlink also won all-region and all-state laurels. He already has scholarship offers and is interested in the likes of Arizona State, Arizona, Michigan, California, Oklahoma, Stanford and Colorado.

Joining Schlink in the trenches are OL Cory Woolery (6-3, 280, Sr.), OG Matt Aguirre (5-10, 230, Sr.), C Seth Leake (6-2, 225, Sr.), OL/DL Brian Gabbard (6-4, 225, Jr.), DL Juan Ramos (5-11, 250, Jr.), DE Jimmie Lewis (6-0, 200, Jr.) and DE Josh Bell (6-0, 215, Jr.).

Linebackers Adam Shipley (5-11, 200, Sr.), Jordan Rooks (6-0, 215, Sr.) and Reggie Umuolo (6-0, 205, Jr.) have ability and experience.

Rounding out the list of returning veterans are TB/SS John Hughes (5-9, 180, Jr.), S Zach Hawley (6-0, 170, Sr.) and WR Jerrell Peterson (6-3, 173, Sr.).

Centennial is loaded!

Coach Roy Lopez and his MARCOS DE NIZA Padres should contend in 2007. Twenty-six lettermen return from a squad that wound up 6-7. The Padres had a so-so regular season, but put together a nice playoff run, beating Ironwood and North Canyon, before falling to Sunnyside in the state semifinals.

The best MDN returnee is Harrison Evens, a valuable two-way performer at running back and defensive back. This 5-11, 185-pound senior has 4.44 speed and posted good enough numbers as a junior (1,352 yards rushing on 160 carries, 10 touchdowns) to win our Tempe Player of the Year award (see page 32). He also was named the Central Region Offensive Player of the Year.

Evens will have plenty of help. QB/DB David Viel (5-10, 180, Sr.) completed 80 of 156 attempts last year for 1,117 yards and 10 six-pointers. Another senior signal caller – Marlo Moreno (5-11, 185) – was 44 of 75 for 862 yards and seven scores in limited duty. The primary receiver should be senior Jason Barkac (6-2, 210), who also plays defensive end and serves as the Padres' punter. Senior Quenton Baker (5-7, 180) sees two-way duty at running back and strong safety. Wide receivers Drew Morris (6-2, 200, Sr.), David Pender (6-3, 200, Sr.) and Kenny McCallister (6-1, 175, Sr.), as well as running back Aaron Jones (5-9, 175, Sr.) will also make their presence felt.

Big Michael Greer (6-3, 300, Sr.) is a stalwart in the trenches, flanked by the likes of Shawnik Torres (6-0, 270, Sr.) and Casey Malaney (5-8, 170, Jr.).

Other anticipated starters are WR/DB Arenso Scribber (6-0, 180, Sr.), DT/FB Ben Swanson (5-10, 200, Sr.), RB/DB Donald Richardson (5-7, 170, Sr.), DB/RB Jimmy Mamane (5-10, 185, Sr.), WR/DB Alex Jasso (5-10, 180, Sr.), DB Anthony Rose (6-2, 180, Jr.), LB Kakalee Pule (6-0, 220, Jr.) and FB Edwin Traylor (5-10, 215, Jr.).

Watch for WR Donavan Henley (5-8, 170), DB Brett Thompson (6-1, 180), OG Ronnie Gomez (6-0, 205), WR Matt Deisler (6-0, 175), K Reid Smith (5-18, 180), K/DB Aric Adair (6-0, 190), LB Remon Abreu (6-0, 180), LB Aaron Dixon (6-0, 190) and WR Justin Rodriguez (6-1, 180) – all underclassmen – to also contribute in a big way.

Things are rolling at WESTVIEW, where 20 lettermen return from last year's 7-5 club and graduates from an excellent 8-1 JV are suiting up for varsity duty.

Coach Jeff Bowen and his Knights start with one of the better linemen in the state; that's senior C/DT Guy Reynolds, a 6-3, 315-pound force. Bowen reports that Reynolds has had 108 pancakes at center the past two seasons and has achieved all-state status on defense. He has plenty of help on the line. Senior OG/DT Schuyler Waterhouse (6-3, 265), junior OG/DT Vine Shatenell (6-1, 250), junior OG/LB Victor Carrasco (5-10, 231), senior OL/DT Travolis Perkins (5-11, 240) and junior OT/DT John Hagle (6-2, 230) will give opponents fits this year.

And there are some gamebreakers! Senior RB/CB Brian Conley (5-9, 175) grabbed Offensive Player of the Year honors in the Desert West Region last season. He used his 4.5 speed to register 1,441 yards rushing and 17 touchdowns as a junior. He had over 2,000 yards of total offense for the Knights in 2006.

Senior QB/FS Albert Lizarraga (5-9, 165) passed for 865 yards and ran for 388 yards last fall, producing a total of 12 scores. All-region kicker Adam Garcia hit 47 of 48 PATs and was five for eight on field goal attempts, with a long of 46 yards.

WLB Fernando Trevino (5-9, 205, Sr.) had 105 tackles in 2006, while RB/CB Reggie Nicholson (5-9, 185, Sr.) scampered for over 900 yards and 11 six-pointers rushing last season.

Adding to Westview's remarkable depth are TE/OLB Raymond Ortega (6-0, 205, Sr.), RB/OLB Daniel Gomez (5-10, 175, Jr.), OLB Jay Nelsen (5-9, 160, Sr.), REC/OLB Richard Craven (6-0, 180, Sr.), TE/DE Vince Keener (6-4, 220, Jr.), MLB Kevin Gunn (5-11, 205, Jr.) and RB/DB R.J. Robinson (5-6, 145, Jr.).

HORIZON could certainly be a factor in the 5A-2 title chase this year. Coach Steve Casey's Huskies are moving down from the 5A-1 wars, where they were a consistent playoff qualifier. Casey welcomes back 17 lettermen, including eight starters, from a solid 7-5 2006 outfit.

The standout group of linemen return, headed by seniors Joe Riccio (6-3, 225), Lee Sisk (5-11, 245), Rob Stanford (6-3, 235), Chris Prosch (6-2, 225), Wil Wamsley (6-1, 220) and Danny Thielen (6-2, 270).

Experienced skill-position players aren't as plentiful, but RB/LB JD Souder (5-11, 210, Jr.), RB/LB Adam Schoenfelder (5-10, 205, Sr.) and RB/OLB Brian Wright (6-0, 185, Sr.) will play key roles.

IRONWOOD lost some dynamite players from their 7-4 playoff team of a year ago. DE William Yancy and WR Eric Hagg have moved onto the University of Nebraska, while PK Alex Zendejas is on his way to the University of Arizona.

Still, the Eagles are highly respected by fellow coaches. Senior QB Randy Klucznik (5-11, Westview's Guy Reynolds, a lineman with tremendous size and strength who earned all-state honors as a junior.

185) returns; he passed for over 600 yards and six touchdowns in 2006. He also played on defense at a linebacker post.

With Hagg and Leonard Jackson gone, seniors Cody Lenhart (6-0, 180) and Derek Holme (6-1, 185) should serve as primary targets in the passing game. Junior Caleb McGee (6-3, 240) is a two-way standout in the lines.

A trio of big offensive linemen – Fred Thornton (6-4, 290), Paul Munoz (6-3, 280) and Robert Scroggins (6-3, 295) – are mainstays for SOUTH MOUNTAIN. All three are just eleventh-graders.

Coach George De La Torre has eight offensive and 10 defensive starters returning, so it could be a year to remember for the Jaguars (5-6 last year).

The linebacking group looks good, thanks to the presence of Daniel Dominguez (5-10, 210, Sr.), Alex Nodora (5-11, 210, Sr.), Aaron Hardwick (5-11, 190, Jr.), Joe Lamar (5-10, 170, Jr.), Bernard Reynolds (6-0, 200, Sr.) and Ivan Worley (6-0, 190, Sr.). Standouts in the secondary should be Clint Wheaton (5-9, 175, Sr.), Anthony Sanders (5-10, 170, Jr.), Dominique Fuqua (6-0, 175, Jr.) and Jerel Ladell (5-8, 150, Sr.).

De La Torre also expects big things from QB David Watts (6-0, 170, Jr.), WR Maurice Trotter (6-0, 170, Jr.), TE/DE Allon Anderson (6-3, 205, Sr.) and DE Sammie Rucker (5-10, 180, Sr.).

Back for his second year at TOLLESON is Head Coach Rich Wellbrock and the Wolverines could be in for a good year.

Although they didn't quite reach .500 last year (5-7 on the season), Wellbrock has a promising unit of 24 letterwinners ready to go.

The best of the 2007 Wolverines should be WR/FS Keifer Fields (6-2, 170), OL/DL Kris Davey (6-1, 210), WR/DB Carlton Hooks (6-1, 170), QB/DB Daniel Flores (5-9, 165), TE/DE Antonio Tarver (6-1, 205), QB/DB Darnell Woods (6-2, 170), RB Eric Saenz (5-9, 165), RB/LB Tim Hullaby (5-11, 215), FB/DT Warren Fernandez (5-9, 200) and OL/DL Jules Henry (6-6, 280).

All are seniors except Woods and Saenz. Both Fields and Saenz have 4.5 speed. The JV didn't have much success last year (2-6-1), but Tolleson should be much improved this time out.

Todd Williamson takes over a program at CENTRAL that struggled for years, but had a fine (10-2) campaign in 2007. Just six regulars return from that unit, but the Bobcats could be playoff-bound once again. Members of last year's 7-3 JV should help fill in the gaps.

Tiny Ryan Knight (5-8, 140, Jr.) is a key performer at free safety and wide receiver. He'll receive assistance from SS/WR Rashard Lewis (6-1, 190, Jr.), CB/KR DeMarcus Henderson (5-10, 185, Sr.) and CB/FS David Acosta (5-9, 190, Sr.) in the secondary. The primary backer is senior William Flowers, a 6-1, 210-pounder with 4.6 speed. He's also the fullback when the Bobcats have the ball.

Calling the signals will be senior Jared Steele, a capable 5-10, 180-pounder. Junior General Collins (6-0, 185) and senior Cody Van Horne (6-2, 230) are proven two-way players at tight end and defensive end. Seniors Brian Tolle (5-9, 225) and Tony Aguilar (6-2, 215) are other weapons along the defensive front.

With 26 varsity veterans back from a 4-6 outfit last year, Coach Dylan Winemiller is raring to go at NORTH. There's talent and depth at the skill positions and linebacker seems to be an area of strength.

The running game features junior Treven Masse (5-9, 215), senior Job Dennis (5-8, 175) and sophomore Antwan Pete (5-6, 150). Senior Quentin Purry (6-3, 190) should be the starter at quarterback.

Looking for receivers? There's WR Dylan Peralta (5-6, 150, Jr.), TE Steven Monteith (6-2, 215, Jr.) and WR Adam Mendoza (6-0, 180, Jr.).

Masse and Mendoza will join the likes of Justin Strong (5-11, 225, Sr.) and Anthony Rodriguez (5-11, 195, Sr.) at the backer posts. Big Manny Rodriguez (5-10, 250, Sr.) is the pacesetter in both lines, while K Jorge Virflas (5-8, 155, Jr.) leads the special teams.

DEER VALLEY could be a sleeper in 2007. After all, the Skyhawks return 21 lettermen from a steady 6-4 varsity of a year ago. And the undefeated JV (9-0) obviously has some good players who are now ready to contribute for Coach Sven Christianson.

The top returning veterans include REC/DB Alfred Bowden (5-10, 185, Sr.), RB/DB Bryce Cooper (5-11, 185, Sr.), REC/DB Jimmy Goad (6-3, 190, Sr.), TE/DE Kory Willis (6-2, 215, Sr.) and QB/LB Dante Sellers (6-1, 210, Sr.).

The big guys up front are seniors Ron Mallory (6-7, 265), Gabe Montano (5-11, 230) and junior Greg Nerger (6-0, 210). Juniors Johnny Morrison (5-9, 185) and Jumanne Robertson (5-10, 165) are both quick and will challenge for playing time at running back.

First-year head mentor Ed Cook inherits a respectable squad at BARRY GOLDWATER. Fourteen returning starters are slated for duty as the Bulldogs attempt to best last season's 6-6 ledger.

Cook is looking to 10 seniors to be team leaders. They are OT John May (6-2, 255), RB Bobby Tomas (5-9, 200), FB C.J. Morgan (5-9, 235), WB/LB Garrett Lee (5-11, 195), TE/DE Billy Jensen (6-3, 240), QB/FS Robby Kim (5-11, 175), OG/DT Luis Salomon (6-0, 235), C/DE Seth Rappold (5-10, 210), WR Bryan Bohen (5-10, 160) and RB/FS Aaron Thomas (5-10, 175).

The good news for PINNACLE is Coach Dana Zupke has 31 lettermen back. The bad news is the Pioneers finished with a 4-7 record last year and now they've moved up to play at the 5A-2 level.

Zupke has put together a solid 24-18 record in his four years at Pinnacle, so maybe his guys can get the job done.

He's not hurting for options at running back or wide receiver. Senior QB Evan Johnson (6-1, 190) can hand the ball off to Jake Gibson (5-10, 185, Sr.), Taylor Stib (5-10, 185, Jr.), John Jones (5-10, 195, Sr.) or Kevin Jaramillo (5-8, 165, Sr.). He can throw it to WR Max Zemezouak (5-10, 180, Sr.), WR Jon Crist (5-11, 175, Sr.) or TE Mike Glock (6-3, 180, Sr.).

And the Pioneers have good size in the trenches, with performers like seniors Zack Lofton (6-3, 215, Sr.), Dereck Raymond (6-3, 275), Danny Troup (6-1, 250) and junior Fred Herdman (6-3, 245).

Whether or not Pinnacle is a legitimate contender in the 5A-2 ranks remains to be seen.

Speedy Mike Liggins (5-7, 180) and big Cody Watts (6-3, 315) – both seniors – are big-time players for Coach Daryl Phillips at CAMELBACK. Liggins gained 1,700 yards rushing last year and has 4.5 speed, while Watts anchors the offensive line.

Derek Wesley (6-2, 270, Sr.), Greg Gurrola (6-1, 220, Jr.) and Xavier Martinez (5-11, 275, Sr.) work with Watts in the trenches. Junior Kaylin Ashley (5-10, 175) is a two-threat at running back and defensive back.

Defensive stoppers include DE Benino Gurrola (6-0, 230, Sr.), LB Noah Blackburn (6-0, 185, Sr.) and LB Marco Ayon (5-9, 181, Sr.). The Spartans should do better than last year's 3-7 mark; after all, 23 lettermen – including 16 starters – are back in the fold.

The Jaguars of DESERT RIDGE threw for over 3,000 yards last year, completing 63% of their passes. That carried them to a 4-6 record and the playoffs before a loss to Sunnyside concluded their 2006 campaign. As a sophomore in this system, RB/REC Chris Heldore (5-10, 180) snared an eye-popping 62 passes.

He's back for more, along with senior REC Carl Curtis (5-11, 178), who tallied 29 receptions last fall.

"We look to return to the playoffs," says Head Coach Jeremy Hathcock. "However, we are very young and inexperienced and we have one of the toughest schedules in 5A-2."

Transfer Chris Jamison could be a factor. The line has good talent and experience, thanks to C Aaron Gibson (6-1, 275), OT Austin Maleskie (6-3, 245), OG/DT Tali Sali (6-1, 235) and DT Nick Duncan (6-1, 282).

There's a good group at linebacker led by Michael Cota (6-0, 210), Tyler Donald (5-11, 220) and Tony Gonzalez (6-0, 180). The leader in the secondary should be safety Ben Amerson (6-1, 198).

Still, much of the Jaguar success depends on Josh Cain, a 5-11, 181-pound quarterback who has looked good in backup duty, but now must run that heralded Desert Ridge offensive attack.

WILLOW CANYON, with Mike Hudnutt running the show, is rounding into shape. The young Wildcats finished 4-7 last year, gaining invaluable experience for 25 lettermen returning in 2007.

Coach Hudnutt knows his guys will have to mature and improve, since moving up from 4A-1 to 5A-2 won't be easy.

His prime-time players are RB/DB BJ Scott (5-8, 175, Jr.), TE/DE Justin Jones (6-2, 225, Sr.), FB/LB Daniel Torres (5-10, 190, Sr.), OL/LB Micah Henige (5-10, 225, Sr.), WR/DB Justin Weber (5-10, 170, Sr.), FB/LB Cody Taylor (5-10, 170, Sr.), OL/DE Gilbert Linares (6-0, 220, Sr.), OL/DT Joey Tucker (5-11, 225, Sr.), QB/FS Trey Clarida (6-1, 180, Jr.) and RB/LB Collin Stoffel (5-11, 215, Jr.).

Coach Mike Waters is on the right track at LA JOYA, where the Fighting Lobos are heading into their third year of varsity competition. They went 2-8 in 2005 and 4-6 in 2006.

If La Joya is to post a winning mark in 2007, watch for S/RB Pedro Olvera (6-1, 180, Sr.), RB/CB Jeremiah Cornist (5-9, 150, Jr.), DL Christian Upshaw (6-3, 235, Sr.), OT Mitchell Clayton (6-3, 240, Sr.) and FB/LB Brandon Thomas (5-11, 190, Sr.) to lead the way.

Altogether, 14 lettermen – including 10 starters – are back in uniform for Coach Waters.

Head Coach Will Babb had a tough time at SUNRISE MOUNTAIN last season. The Mustangs showed just two wins against eight losses in 2006, so they're looking to turn things around this time out.

Twenty-two lettermen return, headed by QB Jeff Decker (5-10, 175, Sr.), OL/DL Jordan Zarrillaki (6-4, 275, Sr.), LB/QB Gilbert Galindo (6-0, 205, Sr.), DB/RB Danny Lange (5-10, 170, Sr.), RB Alex Weathers (5-8, 175, Sr.) and WR/DB Woody Nisbett (5-9, 160, Sr.). Decker, Lange, Weathers and Nisbett all have 4.6 speed or better.

Others to watch include OL Kyle Kwand (6-1, 250, Jr.), OL/DL Brandon Sedio (6-1, 255, Sr.), OL/DL Ryan Johnson (6-4, 260, Sr.), TE/DE Josh Saloiz (6-0, 210, Sr.), K/LB Roman Fernandez (6-0, 185, Sr.) and DB Jimmy Kerr (5-9, 160, Jr.).

BOULDER CREEK also posted a 2-8 mark last year. Coach Dan Friedman welcomes back 20 lettermen from that squad, including returning starters like offensive linemen Brandon Edwards (5-9, 190), Eric Eddy (5-11, 195) and Steve Quinonez (6-0, 230) – all seniors.

The skill positions are well-stocked with RB/DB Davis Jacobs (5-8, 170, Sr.), RB/LB Devin Contreras (5-8, 170, Sr.), QB/DB Colin Hulse (6-2, 175, Jr.), QB/DB Chris Russell (6-2, 170, Sr.) and TE/LB Kris Sexton (5-10, 175, Sr.).

Friedman expects additional support from underclassmen like RB/LB Alyc Rideout (5-11, 190), QB/DB Taylor Davis (6-2, 165), RB/LB Josh Adams (5-9, 190), WB/DB Jordan Wintson (6-1, 170) and REC/DL DeShawn Briggs (6-3, 205).

Coach Peter Jonovich is heading into his seventh year at the helm for SKYLINE. Bryce Albertsman, a wide receiver and defensive back, leads 15 lettermen back into play for the 2007 Coyotes. Albertsman is a 6-3, 190-pound senior with 4.7 speed. Speedsters Elijah McPherson (5-10, 190, Sr.), Tim Brown (6-1, 190, Jr.) and Damari Lewis (5-10, 160, Jr.) will carry the pigskin most of the time for Skyline.

Mainstays up front are C Marros Bermudez (5-8, 240, Sr.), OG/LB Luis Kolonics (5-11, 180, Sr.), OL Matthew Sigman (6-0, 200, Sr.), OL Kyle Schmidt (5-10, 210, Sr.) and DE Lance Hyer (6-1, 180, Jr.).

DB Matt Ditsworth (5-11, 170, Jr.) and K Jared Smith (6-1, 180, Jr.) will also contribute.

Establishing a football program isn't easy. Breaking into play at the 5A-2 level can be brutal. Such is the task for Coach Jason Wilke at VALLEY VISTA, a new school in Surprise. The Monsoon begin their first year of varsity competition with no senior class.

However, Wilke is counting on WR/DB Jeremiah Brown (5-10, 165, Jr.), WR/DB Daniel Miranda (5-8, 165, Jr.), RB/LB Kyle Rowland (5-9, 175), OL/DL Elian Griego (6-1, 235, Jr.), TE/DE Anthony Palumbo (6-1, 210, Jr.), QB/LB Aaron Siefert (5-10, 170, So.), RB/DB Isaiah Steele (5-9, 165, So.) and OL/DL Kyle Lillie (6-0, 210, So.) to be team leaders.

Saguaro Ready to Defend Its 4A-1 Crown Chaparral, Cactus, Peoria in the Picture

Saguaro quarterback Tim Ruben (#5) and Chaparral wide receiver-defensive back Mike Cummings (#80) are two of the finest players in Scottsdale. They'll also attempt to lead the teams far into the 4A-1 state playoffs (Paynter Pics).

John Sanders assumes the head coaching chores at SAGUARO. No pressure. Just keep things going and guide the Sabercats as they battle to repeat as 4A-1 state champs. The 2006 Cats, coached by Mike Reardon (now at Mesquite), conquered 13 of 14 opponents on their way to the top spot.

Key returnees from that team are QB Tim Ruben (6-0, 175), OL/DL Chris Merrill (6-1, 260) and OL/DL Derek Bisgard (6-1, 240) – all senior honors candidates.

Junior Beau Burton (5-10, 190) and senior

Andrew Johnson (5-9, 170) figure to get most of the carries in the backfield, while juniors Paul Porras (5-11, 160) and Max Smith (6-2, 230) are very capable receivers.

Smith doubles on the defensive line, along with OL/DL Corey Adams (6-3, 275, Jr.) and Joe Kellogg (6-2, 290, Sr.). Backers Jake Dunn (5-10, 205, Sr.), Brett Spotleson (5-11, 200, Sr.) and Ben Bisgard (5-11, 185, Jr.) are also major contributors.

CHAPARRAL has a new head coach too. Ron Estabrook retired after the 2006 season, ending a brilliant career with the Firebirds. Charlie Ragle takes over and will build around 23 returning lettermen from last season's 11-3 unit.

Returning all-stater Mike Cummings (6-1, 195) is a dominant player on both sides of the ball. He should have a great senior year.

Blake Schembri (5-9, 190, Sr.) is expected to excel at quarterback, with RB/LB Matt Peterson (5-10, 210, Sr.), WR/S Derek Oesterblad (5-10, 175, Sr.), WR/CB Deverson Carr (5-11, 185, Sr.), WR/CB Luke Miller (6-0, 175, Sr.) and RB Ross Kamela (5-7, 170, Sr.) providing support at the skill positions.

Ragle is also relying on LB Charlie Lytle (6-0, 190, Sr.), OL/DL Lance Coleman (5-11, 250, Sr.) and OL/DL Derrick Nsubuga (5-11, 255, Jr.) to ease the transition.

A couple of speedsters are expected to show the way for Coach Larry Fetkenhier at CACTUS. Senior Bruce Yeo (6-0, 203) and junior Mike Brown (5-10, 193) are both around 4.5 in the 40.

Yeo is a wideout and punts for the Cobras. He grabbed 29 passes for 426 yards and five scores as a junior receiver. Meanwhile, Brown merely rushed for 1,260 yards and 13 touchdowns as a sophomore, earning first-team all-region honors in the process.

Replacing quarterback Ryan Underwood will be difficult, but a solid core of players from last season's 8-4 squad are still on hand for Fetkenhier. By the way, senior Jake Moreno (6-0, 171) has the inside track to be this year's signal caller.

Other proven offensive weapons are TE Cory Myers (6-5, 221, Sr.) and WR Victor Fowler (6-0, 171, Sr.). The lines should be strong, with the likes of OL Tony Brummel (6-3, 263, Sr.), DL Apollo Ford (6-1, 227, Jr.), OL Chris Putton (6-4, 238, Jr.), DL Jake Riggs (6-1, 209, Sr.) and DL Jeremy Lucas (6-2, 281, Sr.) raring to go.

The Cobras are also well stocked at line-backer and in the secondary, thanks to veterans like DB Phillip Pollock (6-1, 174, Jr.), LB Troy Hernandez (6-2, 212, Sr.), LB Ben Monarrez (5-11, 202, Jr.), DB Chrisman Hughes (5-10, 168, Sr.), DB Kandon Thomas (5-10, 168m, Jr.) and DB Austin Brunke (5-10, 166, Jr.).

PEORIA has a nice foundation for 2007. There's skill-position performers like RB/DB Jamal Miles (5-11, 170, Jr.), RB Ezra Sanchez (5-9, 175, Sr.), QB Vinnie Spano (6-1, 190, Jr.), TE Jeff Dwyer (6-1, 210, Sr.) and DB Martin Madrigal (5-11, 180, Sr.).

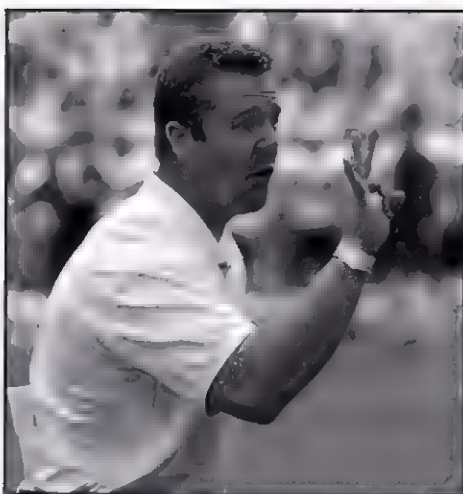

Also among the 28 returnees are OL Anthony Shaw (6-5, 265, Sr.) and LB Michael Rodriguez (6-1, 205, Jr.).

We look for the Panthers to be at least as good as they were a year ago, when they finished with a 9-4 mark.

"We're in a new class with new challenges," says CACTUS SHADOWS Head Coach Chad DeGrenier. Now in his fourth year at the controls for the Falcons, DeGrenier returns 24 lettermen from his undefeated (15-0) title team of a year ago. Of course, he won't have Phillip Aholt (Arizona Quarterback of the Year, see page 4AZ) to ignite his powerful offense this fall, but the cupboard is far from bare.

Matt Williams, a senior wide receiver and defensive back, is among the Falcons' best returnees. The 5-10, 175-pounder is terrific on both sides of the ball. The receiving corps also features Brian Colan (5-11, 175, Sr.), Cody Barwick (6-3, 190, Sr.) and Chris Chesney (6-3, 195, Jr.).

Watch for Dane Andrews (5-11, 195, Sr.),

Things went very well for Coach Chad DeGrenier and his Cactus Shadows Falcons in 2006 (Paynter Pics).

Kenny Prodan (5-11, 205, Jr.) and Johnny Barro (5-10, 175, Jr.) to carry the pigskin most of the time.

The premiere linemen for Cactus Shadows figure to be OG/DE Chris Manship (6-4, 230, Sr.), OT/DT Taylor Lewan (6-6, 250, Jr.) and OT Alec Wrightman (6-3, 230, Sr.).

"We had a very successful 2006 season," says PRESCOTT Head Coach Lou Beneitone. "Many players are working hard, wanting to repeat last year's success. Our biggest slot to fill is the quarterback position. Dan Trail, the QB from last year, will be a big loss."

But the Badgers have a powerful bunch of 22 veterans from last year's 9-3 varsity. Headliners of that group are WR/DL/LB Isaac Chavez (6-1, 215), RB/DB Keith Knudsen (6-2, 185), OL/LB Bryan Barberena (6-0, 200), WR/DB Skyler Branch (6-0, 180), RB/DB Chris Shipp (5-8, 185) and RB Levi Carter (6-1, 225) – all twelfth-graders.

Heavy contributions are also expected from OL Troy Boehm (6-2, 220, Sr.), OL/DL Daniel Brutinel (6-2, 234, Sr.), LB Lopati HoChee (6-0, 205, Sr.), TE/DL Jordan Magdeleno (6-2, 210, Sr.), OL/DL Spencer Campbell (5-11, 250, Jr.), RB/DB Jacob Jarvis (6-1, 195, Jr.), WR/DB Brian Scatos (6-1, 175, So.), TE/DE Nick Randall (6-3, 190, Jr.) and TE/DE Jordan Pruzina (6-3, 205, Jr.).

Either Trevor Cruz or Josh Chavez should win the nod at quarterback. TE/DE Ty Asay (6-4, 215) is a senior transfer from West Virginia.

Mike Gibbons is the new head mentor at MCCLINTOCK, where he inherits 24 letterwinners, including 14 starters, from the 2006 club that posted six wins in 11 outings.

First and foremost on that list of veterans is FB/MLB David Blair, a powerful 6-2, 225-pounder with 4.6 speed. He's a definite honors candidate this time out.

Another playmaker for the Chargers is WR/DB Malcolm Martin, a 5-11, 185-pound senior with even better speed than Blair.

Gibbons is also relying on TE/DE Jared

Ringer (6-2, 210), OT Enrique Ortega (6-3, 230), OG John Benhken (6-2, 235), WR/FS Hussian Harris (6-3, 210), RB/LB Ty Roberts (5-10, 180), RB/DB Vinnie Bradley (5-7, 165), RB/DT Zack Hansen (5-7, 210) and QB Kelly Kurzman (5-11, 200) – all seniors.

"We only graduated three seniors that started," says SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR Head Coach Rick Mey.

That means the Eagles return an amazing 37 lettermen, including eight starters on each side of the line of scrimmage. This is Mey's fourth year at O'Connor; he sports a solid 18-14 mark right now. But this could be his best team to date.

The defense is bolstered by five three-year starters – LB Robert Robbins (6-0, 210), LB Elliott Ness (6-1, 215), FS Tyler Rajec (5-11, 175), DE Alex Edwards (5-10, 220) and DL Tanner Marano (6-2, 245). Robbins earned all-region recognition last fall.

Offensively, keep track of TE/QB Justin McElroy (6-1, 185, Jr.), OL Aron Spisak (6-4, 240, Sr.), WR Spencer Brown (6-0, 170, Sr.) and RB Zack MacPhee (5-8, 185, Sr.). Brown moved here from Idaho, while MacPhee is a transfer from Mountain Ridge.

INDEPENDENCE has a new coach, an excellent collection of returning linemen and some questionmarks at the skill positions. The Patriots had a fine season a year ago, registering nine wins against only two losses.

Senior stalwarts up front are Justin Pryce (6-5, 295), Dominic Jones (6-1, 240), Sean Collins (6-2, 245), Diego Bencomo (5-10, 200) and Giovanni Escobar (5-10, 210).

Watch for RB/DB TyQuan Wilson (6-0, 175, Sr.), WR/DB Kyree Perkins (5-8, 160, Sr.), QB/DB Jeff Sealing (6-1, 180, Sr.) and QB/LB Travis Ramirez (6-0, 195, So.) to help get the job done.

AGUA FRIA will certainly miss Everson Griffen. Our Phoenix Metro and Arizona Player of the Year (see pages 4 and 21AZ) was quite possibly the most recruited player in the history of our state. He finally opted for USC and certainly has all the necessary tools to be a great collegiate player.

Coach Kelly Epley does have seven starters back from his club that posted a nifty 12-1 slate, advancing to the 4A-1 semifinals. Foremost among the returning regulars are TB/WR/DB Derrick Ross (5-11, 160, Sr.) and WR/LB Brian Lawrence (6-0, 185, Jr.).

The Owls possess good size in the interior line, thanks to performers like OG Ian Blazek (5-11, 190, Sr.), TE Roy Perez (6-1, 215, Sr.), OT Aaron Davis (6-3, 245, Sr.), OG Brian Espinoza (5-9, 180, Sr.) and OT Sean Velasquez (6-0, 275, Sr.). Junior Chris Ferrar (5-9, 175) and senior Paul Amparan (5-9, 190) will take over many of the ball-carrying chores handled by Griffen in 2006.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN was 1-9 in 2005 – Coach Josh Sekoch's first year with the Matadors. They improved to 3-8 in 2006 and, with 31 letterwinners back in uniform, reaching the .500 level or better is certainly a good possibility.

The Matadors are led by SS/FB/P Tyler Juede (6-0, 230). He's a three-year starter with good skills, great versatility and 4.6 speed. With a good senior campaign, Juede could earn a scholarship to play Division 1 football next year.

And he has plenty of support. Key performers on the line of scrimmage are OT/DE Doug Zismann (6-3, 270, Jr.), OL/DL Ryan Shaw (6-2, 310, Jr.), C/DE Ryan Young (6-1, 230, Jr.), OL/DT Will Curtis (6-2, 250, Sr.) and OG/DT Matt Duggan (6-0, 215, Sr.).

Either Darryn Cook-Kelley (6-0, 170, Jr.) or Tom Boundy (5-8, 155, Jr.) should get the call at quarterback. The running back group includes Richard Garcia (6-1, 190, Sr.), Mark Markar (6-0, 200, Jr.), Brett Mallette (6-0, 240, Jr.), Sebastian Michelle (5-8, 160, Jr.), Derek Pluma (5-7, 160, Jr.) and Jason Rhode (5-10, 160, Jr.).

Others to watch are WR/FS Michael McLeran (5-9, 170, Sr.), TE/LB Josh Brooks (6-2, 245, Jr.), TE/DE Marcus Santa Cruz (6-3, 205, Sr.), WR/DB Matt Farney (6-0, 170, Jr.), WR Jamie Rutherford (5-11, 150, Jr.) and WR/DB Andrew Chandler (5-9, 180, Jr.).

APOLLO Coach Zack Threadgill no longer has Prince Amukamura, our Arizona Running Back of the Year (see page 9AZ), to tote the pigskin. Amukamura is now a University of Nebraska Cornhusker.

So where does that leave the Hawks? Well, Threadgill's bunch was 7-4 last season and he has 14 starters back in 2007. Headliners are WR/FS Justin Livingstone (6-0, 175, Sr.), OG/DL Ruben Garcia (5-10, 285, Sr.), OT Orlando Lara (6-1, 295, Sr.), SS Jason Burnett (6-0, 175, Jr.), RB/CB Torrick Vaughn (5-8, 145, Sr.) and RB Mike Gonzales (5-10, 192, Jr.).

Other Apollo mainstays are DL Neirisi Serano (6-2, 294, Jr.), TE/DE Raul Saenz (6-0, 190, Sr.), LB Josh Benninger (5-9, 175, Sr.), K Chris Arollo (5-10, 160, Sr.), SS/LB Hunter Marsh (5-7, 160, Sr.) and C/DL Steve Afre (5-10, 195).

A sure sign of the East Valley's growth is the rise to the 4A-1 ranks by APACHE JUNCTION. For years, with some of the smallest enrollment figures in the classification, the Prospectors had trouble competing at the 4A level. Now, with an enrollment of 1,810 students, AJ is among the largest schools in the Desert Sky Region.

Coach Max Ragsdale guided his guys to a fine season in 2006; the Prospectors finished 9-5, advancing to the 4A-2 semifinals before bowing to Higley. Four key players – RB/DB Shane McCullen (6-1, 195, Jr.), RB/LB Tripper Meason (5-10, 190, Sr.), OL/DL Louie Crespo (6-2, 280, Sr.) and TE/DE Jeremy Loya (6-2, 215, Sr.) – return from that squad. McCullen and Crespo could be among Arizona's best this year.

The jump in class with an inexperienced outfit – only seven starters are back – could present problems for Apache Junction, but don't sell this team short. They could be up to the challenge.

Coach Tim Mayfield at SUNNYSLOPE finds himself in almost the same situation as Coach Ragsdale at Apache Junction. One added twist – he's a first-year coach for the Vikings.

Sunnyslope did well last year, ending up 8-5 with a trip to the 4A-2 quarterfinals. However, Mayfield inherits only six starters from that team and the 2006 JV was just 4-4.

Watch for QB/FS Beau Grado (6-1, 180, Sr.), RB/LB Chad Corley (6-1, 195, Jr.), RB/LB Jesse McGrath (5-11, 190, So.), WR/CB Max Barkley (5-10, 160, Sr.), OL/LB Mack Kruljac (6-1, 195, Sr.), OL/DL John Capriotti (6-1, 205, Jr.), WR/CB Meshach Watkins (5-7, 150, Jr.) and QB/LB Nathan Schexnayder (6-0, 190, Sr.) to show the way.

On the other hand, PARADISE VALLEY is going from the 5A-2 classification to the 4A-1 level, so Coach Donnie Yantis and his Trojans are somewhat of an unknown.

Eighteen returning letterwinners form a good foundation and last year's JV was a very respectable 6-3 on the year. Still, the Trojans were 4-7 last year. The passing game is a strength, with QB Grant O'Brien (6-0, 185, Sr.), WR Chris McFaul (6-2, 175, Sr.) and WR Ebo Makinde (6-0, 170, Jr.) in leading roles.

Yantis also anticipates standout performances from OL/DL Nick Sabye (6-6, 235, Sr.), FB/LB Jesse Harper (5-11, 220, Jr.), DB Dylan Borys (6-1, 175, Jr.), OL/DL Jason Schertz (5-9, 210, Sr.) and P/K Donny Compton (5-10, 190, Jr.).

Coach Mark Smith is beginning his fourth year at MILLENNIUM. He's put together a lofty 25-11 ledger so far, although his 2006 group were just 4-6. Thirteen regulars are back in action and the junior varsity finished with seven wins in eight attempts last fall.

The best of the '07 Tigers should be LB Johnny Carrasco (5-10, 200, Sr.), DL Victor Dominguez (6-0, 205, Sr.), QB Andre Moore (6-2, 195, Sr.), WR/FS James Castillo (5-9, 165, Jr.) and WR Derek Waddell (6-3, 175, Sr.).

Other notables include DB Cedric Easley (5-10, 155, Sr.), TE/P Zac Livingston (6-2, 190, Sr.), LB Jaime Gaeta (6-1, 190, Jr.), DL Terrance Woods (6-2, 237, Jr.), OL Mark Rudolpho (5-9, 210, Jr.), OL Justin Vizcaino (6-1, 185, Sr.) and RB Kyle Jackson (5-9, 145, So.).

"If we can stay healthy and play to our potential, I feel we can compete strongly at this level," says Ron Frank, head coach at COPPER CANYON. He does have some weapons.

Playing an independent varsity schedule last year, the Aztecs were 5-4. Frank, now in his fourth year at CCHS, welcomes back an amazing 20 starters from that unit. It begins with QB/FS Jared Baldonado (6-0, 180), a four-year starter for the Aztecs. "He has a live arm and quick feet. He's a great leader," says Frank.

Other stalwarts on offense are RB Rashad Davis (6-0, 185, Sr.), RB Dominique Dennis (5-10, 175, Sr.), RB Jeryl Willis (6-0, 200, Sr.), TE Manny Hernandez (6-0, 200, Sr.), as well as offensive linemen Anthony Greiner (6-0, 210, Sr.), Richard Rodriguez (6-0, 175, Sr.), Willie Jackson (6-1, 220, Jr.) and Bo Wheeler (5-11, 190, Jr.).

Dennis and Willis, a transfer from Tucson, have 4.6 speed or better. All of these players, including Baldonado are slated to play on the Copper Canyon defense too.

Bouncing back from a tough 3-7 campaign is the task at hand for the Chiefs at THUNDERBIRD. It won't be easy, since just eight returning starters are still available to Head Coach Brent Wittenwyler.

The headliners are TE/LB Mike Butzine (6-2, 195, Sr.) and WR/DB Lavaughn Rylon (6-2, 185, Sr.). TE Jason Leos (6-2, 195, Sr.), WR PJ Garcia (5-9, 175, Sr.) and WR Andrew Penrose (6-1, 185) will also be factors in the passing game. Setting up behind center will be Chris Womack, a 6-2, 180-pound senior with a strong arm.

In addition, Wittenwyler anticipates steady performances from linemen Stephen Howell (6-0, 215) and Stephen Davis (6-0, 210) – both seniors.

Very Strong Year for 5A-1 Teams

Brothers RB/DB Marquese Wheaton, a 5-10, 170-pound senior, and WR/DB Markus Wheaton, a 5-11, 160-pound junior, could spark MOUNTAIN POINTE to the playoffs in 2007. Both have 4.6 speed.

Second-year Head Coach Phil Abbadessa has a couple of first-class linemen – seniors Gage Gorman (6-3, 255) and Chaz Call (6-1, 255) – to fight the battles up front. He's also expecting big contributions from RB/LB Ben Smith (5-9, 190, Sr.), QB/DB Adel Belgaid (5-11, 205, Sr.), QB/WR/DB Will Claye (5-9, 150, Jr.) and WR/DB Branson Ramirez (5-8, 160, Sr.). A total of 22 lettermen return from last fall's 6-4 club. Members of a talented 7-2 JV are also on hand.

Others to watch are TE/LB Dan Hood (6-2, 180), WR/DB Michael Woodham (6-1, 180), OL/DL Trever Dennis (6-1, 260), OL/DL Ricky Dennis (6-1, 260), TE/LB Jason Reichart (5-11, 190), RB/DB Jarell Turner (5-6, 150), OL/LB Sean Beutner (5-8, 200), OL/LB Mike Kenney (5-11, 170), OL/DL Brad Powell (5-10, 210), OL/DL Spencer DeJohn (6-4, 215), OL/DL John Pedraza (5-11, 230) and TE/LB Andrew Bensted (6-1, 180).

The Jackrabbits of MESA have a new head mentor in Kelley Moore, the former coach at Independence. Moore inherits 12 returning lettermen, half of which were starters a year ago. The coach's overall coaching record stands at 126-60, so he's certainly proven himself in his previous stints.

Moore will battle the likes of Mountain View, Red Mountain and so on with a new mix of skill-position players and down linemen. His best returnee might be RB/DB Keelan Johnson, a 6-0, 195-pound senior with 4.5 speed. The starter at quarterback figures to be Tony Gallegos (5-8, 175, Sr.), while seniors Kyree Hart (5-9, 170), Derek Kirk (5-11, 175), Austin McNeil (5-10, 185) and Michael Clore (5-11, 175) will all battle for playing time at running back. Tight end Beau Gardner (6-4, 230) is a good one; he'll also contribute as an outside linebacker on defense.

Headliners in the trenches are RG/LB John Jarvis (6-0, 185), OL/DL Pasiaka Fahino (6-0, 262) and OL/DL Joe Matney (6-0, 200). Fahino is just beginning the eleventh grade.

Topping last year's 7-4 mark is a good goal. Mesa looks plenty capable, but the competition will be brutal.

MOUNTAIN RIDGE, under the direction of first-year coach Bobby Green, was respectable a year ago – 5-5 before bowing out in the first round of the playoffs by a 46-21 count to eventual state champion Hamilton. This club could do better in 2007.

Twenty-two varsity veterans are back for Green's second campaign, led by QB Kevin Yost (6-0, 180, Jr.) and wideouts Jeff Locke (6-1, 192, Sr.) and Ryan King (6-2, 194, Sr.). Super-quick Georgio Giurdanella (5-9, 170) is a player to watch at running back and defensive back.

There's good size up front with C/DT Taniela Niutei (6-2, 280), DE Mike Brown (6-0, 212), OT Ryon Gardner (6-0, 240) and OT Brandon Gabbard (6-5, 260) – all seniors.

Other contributors should be LB Mike Chocholousek (5-10, 185, Jr.), RB/LB Brett Hager (5-10, 180, Jr.) and RB/WR/LB Kenny Elgin (6-2, 180, Sr.). The Mountain Lions could be tough in tight games, since Locke doubles as one of the best kickers in the state.

How about those HIGHLAND Hawks? New Coach Pete Wallhiem takes over a squad that won six and lost five in 2006. Seventeen letterwinners – including 11 regulars – will make the transition a bit easier. Featured performers figure to be RB/LB Mike Madrid (6-1, 235), QB Jeremy Fuhst (6-3, 185), K Mike DiGangi (6-0, 185), WR/DB Dylan Jones (6-0, 195), OL/DL Kevin Dever (6-1, 185) and RB/DB Jackson Law (5-10, 165, Jr.).

Madrid is a playmaker on both sides of the football, while Jones, Law and WR/DB Chase Garrett (6-0, 140, Sr.) possess 4.5 speed.

Size could be a problem, but TE/LB Cord Harris (5-11, 200), RB/LB Anthony Muller (6-0, 200), WR/DB Jake DeGracie (5-10, 145, Jr.) and TE/LB James Pazos (6-2, 205, Jr.) will play supporting roles.

The MESQUITE football program is now in the capable hands of Mike Reardon, formerly the coach at Saguardo, the defending 4A-1 state champs. The Wildcats were just 3-7 last year, so improvement is the name of the game this fall.

Good skill-position players are on hand, led by Lucas Scott, a 5-8, 200-pound senior running back and linebacker. He has 4.5 speed.

Senior RB/LB Nolan Jeffries (5-9, 195) will share ball-carrying responsibilities with Scott, while the receiving corps is deep and talented with the likes of TE/DE Trevor Kohl (6-3, 235), WR/DB Fabrice Jeffries (5-9, 195) and C.J. Evans (5-8, 165) in the lineup.

A dozen starters are back in uniform for Coach Reardon, as he attempts to mold Mesquite into a 5A-1 contender.

Could be a better year for second-year Coach Eddy Zubey at WESTWOOD, where 24 Warrior lettermen are back to improve on last season's 3-7 mark.

Among the brightest of the returning regulars are QB Brandon Large (6-2, 185), TE/LB Ben Parker (5-11, 205) and RB/LB Ben Ochoa (5-10, 185) – all seniors.

Zubey is also anticipating big things from RB/DB Jeron Beaton (5-8, 175), WR/DB Kenny Anderson (6-2, 180), OL/LB Ed Judie (6-1, 225), WR/DB Adam Garcia (5-7, 145) and DL Chris Smith (5-10, 260).

Dan Widmaier is heading into his third year as the head mentor at CESAR CHAVEZ. The Champions won three and lost seven last year, so the 15 returning lettermen and members of an undefeated JV (9-0) are looking to turn that around in 2007. Senior RB/FS Jarron Johnson (5-10, 180) is a key performer for this club; he has the ability to make big plays. Demetrius Burnett (5-10, 180, Jr.) and Troy Stewart (5-10, 190, Sr.) are solid linebackers; Stewart also plays some fullback.

Others to watch include DE/TE Tyree Royston (6-3, 195, Sr.), DE Tony Lee (6-0, 190, Jr.), C Dan Seville (5-9, 230, Sr.), RT/DL Marcos Leal (6-0, 235, Sr.), RG/DL Kyle Jukas (5-8, 185, Jr.), LG/DL Sam Ugarte (5-10, 180, Sr.) and RB/OLB Jeremy Vinson (5-9, 175, Sr.).

TREVOR BROWNE has a new head coach. Randy Gross comes over from Westview, after leading the JV there to a sparkling 24-2 record. Maybe he can work his magic with the Bruin varsity, which won just two of 10 contests last fall.

Headliners among the returnees are FB/MLB Anthony Carrasco (6-0, 210), OT/DT Diego Gonzalez (6-3, 280) and junior TB/DB Isiah Key (5-8, 170).

The starting quarterback should be senior Jorge Acuna, a 6-1, 170-pounder who also plays free safety. Besides Key, the other ball carriers to watch are seniors John Hunter (6-0, 180) and Kevin Moulis (5-11, 200).

Junior C/DE Sal Hernandez (5-10, 260), senior DB Harold Gholson (5-6, 160) and senior TE/LB Oscar Flamenco (6-0, 200) will also help Trevor Browne fortunes.

Veteran Coach Frank Latt is hoping his ALHAMBRA Lions can battle their way back from a subpar 2-8 ledger last year.

Mainstays in the backfield will be RB/DB Jeff Rhone (5-10, 170, Sr.), QB/DB Charles Lopez (6-1, 160, Sr.), QB/DB Nathan Mendenhall (5-11, 155, Sr.) and FB/LB Garrett Turner (6-0, 225, Jr.). Top returning receivers are TE/DL Curtis Davis (6-4, 220, Sr.), WR/DB Myron Perez (6-0, 170, Sr.) and WR/DB Jacob Serrato (5-10, 155, Jr.).

Stalwarts in the line are OL/DL Javier Garcia (6-4, 275, Sr.), OL/LB Sheldon Doffenbaugh (5-11, 210, Sr.) and OL/DL Ken Murray (6-2, 250, Sr.).

Higley, Buckeye, Queen Creek Top Three in 4A-2 Race to the Finish

The football program at HIGLEY made great strides in 2006. It's true the Knights couldn't quite run the table – they lost, 28-14, to Cactus Shadows in the 4A-2 championship game at the University of Phoenix Stadium.

But Coach Jim Beall and his guys had every reason to be proud. How many teams finished with an 11-3 record or better? How many teams advanced to the title game for their classification and earned a chance to play in the Arizona Cardinals' new stadium?

Don't be surprised if they're back again on December 1st. "Look out for the Knights," says Beall. Barring injury, Tito Gonzales and Alex Jentzen will be the stars.

Gonzales is a 6-2, 195-pound senior poised for a monster year at running back and linebacker. Jentzen, a 6-0, 175-senior, is a keg cog at running back and defensive back.

A total of 26 lettermen return and help is on the way from an undefeated (8-0) junior varsity. The Knights are strong in the trenches, thanks to players like OL Jon Black (6-4, 280, Sr.), DE Ivan Ballit (5-11, 250, Sr.), OL/DL Eddie Rodriguez (5-10, 260, Jr.) and OL/DL Steve Hardy (5-10 270, Sr.).

Junior Daniel Davis (6-2, 280) is a two-way threat as a wideout and in the secondary.

"This team could be the best at BUCKEYE in many years," says Coach Bobby Barnes. The Hawks have back-to-back 8-3 seasons on their resume; this could be the year they win the whole thing.

Buckeye is a well-balanced outfit. There plenty of talented linemen, led by DE Clint Gladden (6-4, 220), OL/DL Kellend Brookover (6-4, 250) and C Dakota Astraus (6-2, 235) – all seniors. Gladden is a returning all-stater with 30 sacks in the last two years. Additional veterans include OL Zak Nicholson, OL Steven Pearson, DL Alberto Manzanarez, OL Sam Valverde and OL Kyle Sanchez.

Senior LB Tyler Miller (6-0, 220) was the Defensive Player of the Year in the Higley's Tito Gonzales will do his best to help the Knights reach the 4A-2 finale once again. He's a honors candidate at running back and linebacker (Higley High School Yearbook photo).

Skyline Region last season. He'll be assisted by SLB Tyler McArthur, WLB Michael Boone and WLB Arthur Brown – all juniors.

The passing attack features QB Troy Ganley (6-1, 165), TE Coleman McArthur (6-0, 220) and WR Franky Lynch (6-0, 165). Wide receivers Junior Lerma, Terense Wilson and Alden Bryant lend support. McArthur and Lynch are honors candidates in 2007.

Three-year starters Jeremy Schwiesow and Pat Sanders are stalwarts in the secondary, with junior Matt Warner pushing for playing time. Kicker Ricky Norman set a school record for field goals last year, including a pair of 46-yards.

This could be a breakthrough year for Coach Curt LeBlanc at QUEEN CREEK. The Bulldogs appear to be serious challengers for the 4A-2 crown.

Big Ian Spencer (6-5, 277) and versatile Tod Workman (5-11, 175) are a couple of LeBlanc's primary weapons.

Spencer is a force to be reckoned with from his offensive tackle position. And Workman will get most of the carries from his running back post, when he's not set up at linebacker on defense.

Also back from last year's 7-5 club are REC/FS Jensen Nevitt (6-2, 180, Sr.), FB/NG Jake Goddard (5-10, 190, Jr.), OT Ryan Turner (6-1, 230, Jr.), FL/CB Jared Call (5-10, 170, Sr.) and TE/FB/LB Travis Nino (6-0, 195, Sr.).

NOTRE DAME PREP has one of the finest quarterbacks to come out of our state in many years. At least that's the buzz about senior Sean Renfree (6-3, 200), who threw for nearly 2,500 yards and 24 scores in 2006.

The Saints need others like RB/FS Patrick Foley (6-0, 175, Sr.), RB/LB Andrew Stutz (5-11, 180, Sr.) and WR Brandon Hirneise (6-1, 180, Sr.) to play well and help this young program reach for the skies. Kicker Chris Cardner (5-9, 160, Sr.) is dependable and will aide the Saints' cause.

Foley and Stutz combined for over 800 yards rushing last fall.

Twenty-one lettermen are back in uniform for Coach Jim Bevell at ARCADIA. The Titans put together another solid slate in 2006, grabbing nine wins in 12 contests. They've been close for the past couple of years, but, so far, Bevell's troops haven't quite reached the ultimate goal.

This group will take another shot. Led by TE/WR Sean Jarvis (6-5, 210, Sr.), QB/WR Dan Hildebrand (6-0, 185, Sr.), WR/DB Carroll David (6-1, 170, Jr.) and WR Joey Cosgrove (6-3, 180, Sr.), the Titans' passing attack should be stellar.

Running back Chad Cullen (6-0, 190, Sr.) should get most of the carries, while LB Kramer Hope (6-1, 200, Sr.) is a stopper on defense. Look for OL Nick Curley (6-0, 200, Sr.), OL/DL Joe Carter (6-0, 215, Sr.), OL Alex Parsons (6-3, 210, Sr.), OL/DL Kyle Van Arden (6-5, 225, Sr.) and DL Maurice Willingham (6-0, 200, Sr.) to be very physical in the trenches. Junior Adam Joffe (6-1, 190) is becoming a fine linebacker for the Titans.

MOON VALLEY had a very long 2006 season, registering just two wins against nine defeats. And the Rockets' best player – mammoth offensive lineman Javario Burkes – has picked up his diploma and moved on to the University of Nebraska.

Yet there's every reason for hope that the 2007 campaign will be a bounce-back year. A promising group of 28 letterwinners – half of them starters – are back and raring to go. Also, the Rockets have dropped down to the 4A-2 level; that might help, although nothing is guaranteed.

Coach Roger Britson welcomes back the following veterans on offense: QB Joey Pieres (5-11, 185, Sr.), RB Blaise Deal (6-3, 200, Sr.), RB Anthony Moya (5-9, 180, Jr.), RB Cord Deal (5-10, 180, So.), TE Robert Chung (6-3, 220, Sr.), OG Chris Salamasino (6-1, 240, Sr.) and OL Tyler Black (6-3, 240, Jr.).

are also slated for defensive duty, along with the likes of CB Josh Tucker (5-11, 175, Jr.), CB Ricki McClure (6-2, 170, Jr.), DL Greg Newton (5-9, 230, Sr.) and LB Matt Ramirez (6-0, 195, Jr.).

Members of last fall's 6-3 JV will fill in the gaps.

It could be a good year at GLENDALE. Head mentor Jason Wilke has a couple of burners and a big blocking back in the backfield. That would be RB/DB Tyrese McGruder (5-8, 165, Sr.), RB/LB Freeland Wilson (5-8, 165, Sr.) and FB/DL DeShaun Anderson (5-11, 240, Sr.), respectively.

Altogether, the Cardinals have 18 varsity veterans back from last season's 6-5 unit. Even more impressive is the fact that 13 of those 18 are returning starters.

Other stalwarts are OL/DL Andrew Mendez (5-11, 225, Sr.), TE/LB Paul Garcia (5-9, 195, Jr.), C/LB Luis Rodriguez (5-10, 185, Jr.) and OL/DE Lazarus Parra (5-11, 200, Sr.).

Senior Brenin Brooks (6-0, 198) is one of the finest players in Arizona. He's primarily known for his work at linebacker, but he can be a rugged customer at tight end too. The Demons of GREENWAY need Brooks and friends to have a big year, since times were tough (0-10) last year.

Coach Mike Brown also expects standout play from OT/DE Dustin Freitag (6-2, 235, Sr.). He'll join forces with OG/DT Jordan Bryan (6-1, 205) and OT/DT Sajed Shubair (5-7, 225) along the front line.

Skill-position players to watch are QB/DB Tyler Gettings (5-6, 170, Sr.), WR/DE Ben Cox (6-3, 175, Sr.), RB/DB John Weaver (5-11, 170, Sr.) and RB/LB

Corbin Jones (5-9, 175, Jr.). All are quick – with 4.65 speed or better.

Coach Al Melo and his MOHAVE Thunderbirds should be in the mix this time out. An imposing number (27) of returning lettermen could really make things happen in 2007.

Up front, Mohave has OL Dorrian Edwards (6-4, 260, Sr.), OL/DL Tyler Hughes (6-2, 260, Sr.) and OL/DL Gabe Munoz (6-3, 285, Sr.) to clear the way.

Randy Queen (6-0, 160, Jr.) calls the signals at quarterback, while FB/LB Cody Adams (6-2, 220, Sr.), RB Andrew Jackson (5-8, 160, Sr.), FB/LB Jay Mejia (5-10, 185, Sr.), TE/DE Tommy Taylor (6-5, 190, Sr.) and WR/LB Nick Padilla (6-1, 185, Sr.) make big plays. Kicker Matt Boyd (5-10, 160, Sr.) is also a reliable weapon.

Coach BJ Pasquel is looking for better days at CORONADO. His Dons were 4-7 a year ago, but this proud football program will be back.

Running back Travis Huff (5-7, 155) heads a group of 11 varsity players from 2006. Huff is a scatback who glided for over 1,500 yards rushing and 12 six-pointers last season. Quarterback Skyler Glessing (5-11, 160) wasn't bad himself, throwing for over 1,000 yards on the year.

The Dons are also expecting big things from the likes of OL/DL Jesus Trujillo (6-3, 310, Sr.), TE/DE J.D. Harper (6-1, 184, Sr.) and RB/LB David Alfaro (5-10, 190, Jr.).

Jon McDonald leads the list of top-notch returnees at SETON CATHOLIC, where the Sentinels are making a big move from the 3A ranks to 4A-2 competition. Seton showed an outstanding 11-1 record in 2006, as McDonald, a 6-1, 220-pounder with 4.6 speed, excelled at middle linebacker.

Other starters back in uniform for the Sentinels are WR/S Nick Gleisner (6-3, 180), RB/LB Corey Vaughn (5-9, 175), OG/LB Josh Dean (5-11, 185) and OT/DT Jake Hendrickson (6-3, 235) – all seniors.

Time for the Scorpions of DESERT EDGE to make their move. Bookend tackles Travis Muller (6-3, 270, Sr.) and Matt Baxter (6-4, 240, Jr.) will pancake some people.

If FB Jeremi Williams (6-0, 210, Jr.) and RB David Berg (5-9, 205, Jr.) can take advantage of some room to run, Desert Edge should be much better than a year ago (4-8). A total of 17 letterwinners are still in uniform and graduates of last year's junior varsity (5-2-1) should provide support.

Coach Ryan Felker is also counting on WR Thomas Chambers (5-10, 170, Sr.) and DL Devin Saucedo (5-11, 200, Sr.) to play important roles.

We expect the Bears of BRADSHAW MOUNTAIN to fare better this fall. Twenty-six lettermen are available for last year's squad (3-8) and Coach Chuck Apap will put them to good use in 2007.

Versatile Ben Pigg (5-10, 176) and powerful Matt Buehler (6-1, 220) are key seniors for Bradshaw Mountain this year. Pigg is good at just about everything he tries; he's a running back, defensive back, placekicker and punter for the Bears. He's also their fastest player. Buehler is a rock at both offensive guard and linebacker.

The quarterback might be transfer Marshall Bailey (6-2, 195, Jr.). Others to watch are WR/DB Justin Kilduff (5-10, 158, Sr.), RB/OLB Kevin Golleher (5-10, 180, Sr.), OL Kyle Arias (6-2, 278, Jr.), LB Steve Dutson (5-9, 203, Sr.), DT Emiliano Velazquez (5-10, 192, Sr.), DT Dillon Doucette (5-11, 327, Jr.), OG Joshua Campbell (5-8, 200, Jr.) and DT Devin Martinez (5-11, 203, So.).

University of Arizona commit Kenny Barnes is the brightest of 48 returnees at RAYMOND KELLIS. For his part, Barnes (6-2, 220) will spend his senior year at defensive end and running back. He's quick, clocking 4.6 in the 40.

All 22 starters are back from last fall's 3-7 unit, so Coach Jason Golden will see some familiar faces. Of course, fighting through a rugged 4A-2 schedule won't be easy.

Leaders on the 2007 edition of Cougar football are RB Tomorris Reese (5-9, 185, Sr.), WR Michael Sanders (6-2, 190, Sr.), FL Mikio Bain (5-8, 160, Sr.), ILB Cody Clark (5-9, 175, Jr.), ILB Junior Meza (5-11, 200, Jr.), OT Pete Lavender (6-4, 240, Jr.), TE Zach Richey (6-4, 200, Sr.), OLB Alex Duncan (5-10, 190, Sr.) and SS Kyle Stevenson (5-8, 160, Jr.).

Coach Johnny Rodriguez has tackles Dayne Darden (5-10, 240, Sr.) and Donald Horvath (5-11, 280, Jr.), as well as runners Michael Waddle (5-9, 175, Sr.) and Billy Hammel (5-7, 185, Sr.) back in the fold at TEMPE. That's a very good start.

There's a lot of work to do to rebound from a 1-9 season, Rodriguez's first as coach for the Buffaloes. Fourteen lettermen are still available, but a solid rebuilding job is in order.

Other Buffs to watch are WR/DB Jacob Miranda (5-8, 150, Jr.), FB/LB John Bautch (5-10, 155, Jr.), OG/DE Jordan Wilson (5-10, 200, Jr.), QB/FS Pedro Rubio (6-0, 160, Sr.), TB/FS Jo Rittenhouse (5-6, 150, Jr.) and C/DE Jame Houdah (5-10, 190, Sr.).

A great class of football players graduates at COOLIDGE and another one takes its place. Gone are All-Arizona honorees Jesse Wheeler and T.J. White (see page 30AZ) and friends, but don't expect much of a letdown.

The Bears are the near unanimous choice by opposing coaches to make it three state championships in a row. Coach Carlo Hernandez has 22 lettermen back from his 12-1 powerhouse. Want to know how dominant the Bears have been lately? Hernandez sports a 78-10 record in his seven-year tenure at the school.

His biggest star this year might be senior FB/LB Brad Jackson, a 5-11, 210-pound senior with 4.55 speed. He'll get plenty of chances to make big plays in 2007. Taking over for Wheeler at quarterback will be either Charlie Garrett (5-9, 160, Jr.) or George Jones (5-11, 165, Sr.).

Placekicker Cody Barber (6-0, 175, Sr.) is a key performer for Coolidge, along with TE/LB Andrew Ashford (5-11, 180, Sr.), OL/DL Clay Gillespie (6-2, 220, Jr.), OL/DL Wyn Henderson (5-10, 220, Sr.), OL/DL Derek Gonzales (5-10, 200, Sr.), RB/DE Rodney Reagans (5-11, 210, Jr.), WR/LB Kevin Mitchell (5-10, 165, Jr.), WR/DB Zac Ross (5-10, 160, Sr.) and RB/DB Jeremy White (5-9, 145, Jr.).

As good as Coolidge is, WICKENBURG is still in the picture and deserves our utmost respect. Coach Norris Vaughan and his Wranglers battled past 13 straight rivals last year before dropping a hard-fought contest to Coolidge in the finals. Could another "Big Game Appearance" be just ahead?

Returning all-state quarterback Drew Vaughan (6-0, 174) will do his best to direct his team past the Bears in 2007. He completed 65% of his passes in 2006, good for 1,941 yards.

He has plenty of help too, thanks to 19 other lettermen back in uniform. However, the offense returns just three starters, while the defense has eight regulars ready to go. Coach Vaughan will blend in the guys of last year's 8-0-1 JV.

Junior Blake Crissman (6-2, 225) earned all-state recognition as a sophomore tackle last fall. Sheldon Murphy (5-9, 160), another junior, is remarkable in the secondary. Senior DE Aaron Marsh (6-3, 190) could blossom into a college prospect.

Besides Crissman and Marsh, the line features DL Matt Deacon (5-10, 225, Sr.) and DE Dallas Mills (6-3, 180, Jr.). Best backer is Kellan Henderson (5-10, 185, Sr.), while the secondary is well-stocked with Jordan Pollec (5-10, 150, Jr.), Enrique Bernal (5-10, 160, Jr.) and Lane Leevitt (5-11, 160, Sr.) ready to defend. Kicker Derek Sievert (6-0, 180, Sr.) could be the difference in close games.

Another team to watch is Coach Jim Fairfield's outfit at FOUNTAIN HILLS. The Falcons are led by a skilled, experienced signal caller – senior Jason Fairfield. That makes them dangerous. Fairfield is a 6-3, 190-pound senior with a big arm.

He has good targets in TE Jim Hubick (6-0, 205, Sr.), WR Josh Trulson (5-11, 170, Sr.) and WR Kriegh Greenstreet (6-3, 205, Sr.). Running duties should fall to Robert Rossfeld (6-0, 185, Jr.) and Chase Peterson (5-10, 175, Jr.).

In the trenches, Fountain Hills counts on OT/OLB Devin Strong (6-1, 220, Sr.), C/DT Conor Ruppert (5-10, 240, Jr.), OL/DE Mike Casillo (6-2, 205, Sr.) and OL Bob Row (6-1, 195, Sr.) to rally the troops. Altogether, 17 lettermen are available from last year's 8-4 squad.

FLORENCE is gaining enrollment at record pace; now the Gophers have to adjust to life in the 3A ranks. The competition is fierce, but the 2007 Gophers could be up to the challenge.

The play of quarterback Jason Fairfield at Fountain Hills gives the Falcons a legitimate chance for 3A honors.

Despite an unimpressive 2-8 ledger in 2006, many opposing coaches believe Florence could be tough this time out. Coach Shawn Cluff welcomes back 17 lettermen – including 12 starters.

A half-dozen players – QB Cash Clemans (5-10, 155), REC/DB Andy Martinez (5-9, 165), TB/LB Larry Andersen (5-9, 170), REC/LB Alfred Woods (6-2, 185), OL/DL Mickey Tryon (6-3, 225) and FB/LB Chase Simon (5-8, 185) – are mentioned by Cluff as his foundation for this year's team.

Clemans runs the offense well. Andersen is the quickest. Simon is the lone junior in that group.

Plenty of returning tackles and running backs for Coach Josh Anderson at PAYSON.

The veteran linemen include honors candidate Scott Andrus (6-2, 265, Sr.), Matt Wilson (6-6, 260, Jr.) and Bryan Burke (6-5, 230, Jr.).

Carrying the pigskin will be B.J. Hill (5-11, 155, Sr.), David Carlen (6-2, 205, Jr.), Shane Keith (6-2, 180, Jr.) and Brandon Alexander (5-9, 165, So.).

A dozen lettermen are back from the team that won four and lost six last fall. Other mainstays include WR/DB Zach Brooks (6-1, 165, Sr.), QB/LB Ridge Halenar (5-11, 190, Jr.) and WR/DB Tyler Savage (6-2, 195, Jr.).

"We will be young and have a limited number of players with varsity experience," says GLOBE head mentor Mike O'Neal. The Tigers do have a dozen varsity veterans on the side as the season begins; those players helped record a 6-4 slate in 2006.

He's heavy with experienced skill-position players like RB/DB Brady Wager (6-0, 180, Jr.), WR/DB Colten Phillips (6-0, 175, Sr.), RB/DB Tober Francom (5-11, 200, Sr.), RB/LB Nathaniel Smith (5-9, 170, Jr.), TE/DE Brian Burgener (6-0, 185, Sr.) and WB/LB Damon Valencia (5-8, 170, Jr.).

Globe's number one returnee on the line is two-way standout Manny Bejarano (6-0, 205, Jr.).

Will Coach Mike Welch and his young ESTRELLA FOOTHILLS Wolves enjoy more success this campaign? With a lofty group of 26 lettermen ready to take the field, the Wolves could easily top last year's 2-8 mark.

Pacing the offensive attack will be RB David Ford (5-10, 162, Sr.), QB Corey Martin (6-0, 178, Sr.), RB Dalton Miller (6-0, 181, Sr.) and RB Crocket Colbert (5-10, 172, Jr.).

Battling the big boys up front will be OL Devon Cauffman (6-0, 282, Sr.), OL/DE Riley Gannon (6-0, 184, Sr.), OL Eric Brettner (5-11, 271, Sr.), DE Jeff Curry (6-0, 204, Sr.), DL Miguel Miller (5-11, 238, Sr.) and DL Benny Ramirez (6-0, 240, Sr.).

Coach Al Ocampo is into his second year on the job at SANTA CRUZ. The 2006 campaign left room for improvement (2-8), and that's the Dust Devils' mission for 2007.

Seniors Pat Carn (6-1, 190), Mike Guerrero (5-11, 190), Josh Leja (5-8, 175) and Ed Brady (5-8, 150) comprise a nice set of running backs. Bo Sanchez (5-7, 150, Sr.) and DJ Montijo (5-10, 160, Sr.) are the primary receivers.

The leaders in the line are Miguel Cazares (6-1, 250, Sr.), Mike Lujan (5-11, 180, Sr.) and Bruno Torey (5-8, 150, Sr.).

Our favorite at the 2A level is Jim Rattay's squad at PHOENIX CHRISTIAN. Now in his sixth year with the Cougars, Rattay has an impressive coaching record of 51 wins versus 12 losses. His Cougars were Valley Christian's Troy Roffi takes the handoff against Thatcher in last year's 2A State Championship contest. Roffi should be one of the better running backs at the 2A level in 2007 (Paynter Pics).

11-2 last year and return nine starters from that club. So that winning percentage might just go up a few more points.

As with most good programs, the 2007 Cougars have a good balance of experienced players. They're certainly strong in the lines, thanks to the likes of OG/DE Josh Terry (6-3, 230, Sr.), OG/MLB Chuck Hall (6-0, 200, Sr.), OT/DT Matt Scovler (6-2, 240, Jr.) and OT/DT Brandon Hale (6-4, 320, Jr.).

Manning the posts in the offensive backfield will be QB Naje Singelton (6-0, 190, Jr.), RB JR Jarrett (6-0, 180, Sr.) and RB Bobby Calvin (5-11, 190, So.). All are highly respected. Singelton should have a big year behind the center. Calvin is the quickest on the team with 4.5 speed.

Rattay has a nice group of receivers too, namely TE Ethan Hageness (6-2, 190, Jr.), WR Dillon Volcan (6-3, 180, So.) and WR Nic Fulin (5-10, 175, Sr.).

Keep an eye on junior Nate DeSantiago (5-10, 175); he'll see action at rover on defense and quite possibly several positions in the Cougar offensive attack.

Of course, VALLEY CHRISTIAN will be in the picture. After winning the 2A crown in 2005, the Trojans made it back to the big game in 2006, falling to Thatcher by a 42-20 count.

Valley Christian has been nearly perfect since Bill Morgan assumed the head coaching position. In fact, that loss to Thatcher is the Trojans' lone defeat in two years. They're 24-1 in that time period.

Morgan has just five starters returning from last year's team. The best could be RB/SS Troy Roffi, a 6-1, 195-pound senior. He figures to gain big chunks of yardage for the Trojans in 2007.

It won't hurt to have blockers like TE Nick Dwyer (6-8, 270, Sr.), OL John Kredit (6-6, 270, Sr.), OL Davis Voss (6-0, 180, Jr.) and OL Jonathan Durst (5-10, 170, Sr.) leading the way.

Austin Foley (5-10, 175, Sr.) is back from an injury in 2006; he'll get some carries. Fullbacks Anthony Kereluk (5-10, 180, So.) and Brock Longanecker (5-9, 160, Jr.) will also play important roles.

The nod at quarterback should go to junior Steven Sasso (6-2, 175), while senior Garrett Brown (6-0, 190) is the top returnee at linebacker.

Big tackle Brian Mundstock (6-3, 260) and signal caller James Mueller (6-0, 170) – both seniors – lead a group of 16 varsity letterwinners back at ARIZONA LUTHERAN.

Although the Coyotes were just 6-5 in 2006, there's a great chance they'll be much improved in 2007. Remember Coach Doug Meyer and crew reached the 2A Championship Game two years ago.

Additionally, TE/LB John Akers (6-2, 215, Sr.) and RB/CB Jordan Burmeister (6-2, 185, Sr.) are excellent players.

Leaders in the line include OG/DE Billy Walters (6-0, 190, Sr.), OG/DE Ryan Gelner (6-0, 220, Sr.), C/DT Kenton Varkapich (6-0, 205, Sr.) and OT/DT Mathew Morrison (6-1, 210, Sr.).

Christian Merkle (5-8, 165, Sr.) and Josh Winterstein (5-9, 160, Sr.) will share ball-carrying duties with Burmeister.

Back for his second year at BOURGADE CATHOLIC is Coach Kent Lavine. The Golden Eagles (7-5) weren't bad at all in 2006, but they should surpass that mark this fall. Lavine has 24 lettermen – including 13 starters – still available from that club. Members of a 6-2 JV are also on hand.

The offense features QB Michael Vyles (5-10, 165, Sr.), RB Joe Alcocer (6-0, 205, Jr.), RB Kris Keeton (5-8, 155, Sr.), WR Jeff Marshall (5-10, 160, Sr.), WR Tyler Comella (5-10, 160, Jr.), OL Zach Dishmon (6-2, 245, Sr.), C Daniel Casey (6-0, 210, Jr.) and OL Tommy Paz (5-11, 225, Jr.). Each of these players will see duty on defense too.

Senior kicker Justin Magdaleno (5-10, 155) could win a game or two with his powerful leg.

Things are rolling at HAYDEN, where Coach John Estrada guided his Lobos to a great 12-1 record last year, while the JV was finishing with an unblemished 7-0-1 slate.

A half-dozen key performers – RB/LB Joseph Lopez (5-10, 190, Sr.), C/LB Alejandro Estrada (5-10, 180, Sr.), QB/CB Rudy Figueroa (5-9, 170, Sr.), RB/FS Ramon Figueroa (5-8, 170, Sr.), OG/DT Esteban Gallego (6-0, 200, Sr.) and OT/DT Chris Martinez (6-3, 230, Jr.) – are expected to shine for Hayden this time out.

SCOTTSDALE CHRISTIAN could surprise a few folks this season. A trio of running backs – senior Ryan Tully (6-1, 200), senior Kelly Shortridge (5-9, 200) and junior Taylor Barnes (5-8, 175) – will join forces with QB Jeff Matney (5-9, 190, Jr.) and WR Mark Hopkins (5-8, 155, Sr.) to give the Eagles some offensive firepower.

Altogether, 11 regulars are back for Coach Jeff Fox, whose team won four and dropped six last year. Two-way linemen Jim Crowell (6-2, 260, Sr.) and Mike Munsil (6-1, 235, Jr.) are invaluable.

The Vandals of MIAMI were on the right side of the ledger (5-4) last year and Coach George Medrano hopes to build on that. A very solid group of 20 letterwinners are back from that team, including the likes of RB/REC/DB Cam Roland (6-2, 180, Sr.), QB/DB Chris Randall (6-0, 175, Sr.), RB/LB Austin Colman (6-0, 190, Jr.) and OL/DL Jeb Melcher (5-10, 210, Jr.). Roland is very quick (4.6) and is a player to watch.

The offensive line, in particular, is very well stocked. Besides Melcher, Medrano expects big years from Lewis McIntosh (5-10, 230, Sr.), Lawrence Sweat (6-2, 260, Jr.), Gregg Marin (5-9, 210, Jr.), Robert McGauhay (6-3, 260, So.) and Ethan Lopez (6-0, 190, Jr.).

Junior Chris Marin (5-7, 170) has good speed (4.7) and will contribute at running back and defensive back.

Head mentor Derek Wahlstrom welcomes back 23 lettermen at NORTHWEST CHRISTIAN. The Crusaders need a bounce-back year, since they wound up 3-6 in 2006.

Clearly, the best veteran lineman is Preston Linser, a bruising 6-3, 240-pound stalwart on both lines. He's a senior. Supporting Linser on the O-Line are seniors Omar Espiritu (5-10, 270) and Ryan Peiffer (5-9, 230).

Skill-position regulars like WR Adam Mossbrucker (6-2, 170, Jr.), WR/DB Bobby Priest (5-10, 165, Sr.), QB Jacob Franz (6-0, 175, Sr.), WR Brad Harper (6-3, 175, Sr.), WR/DB John Kortman (5-10, 160, Sr.), WR/DB Josh Estes (5-8, 140, Sr.) and RB/LB Nathan Warner (5-10, 170, Sr.) are all capable of high-production campaigns.

Others to watch are DL Bradley Andrews (5-10, 170, Sr.), RB/LB Joe Woosley (5-10, 165, Sr.), LB/OL Zach Papuga (5-10, 165, Sr.), DB/KR/WR Nathan Tyson (5-10, 155, Sr.) and WR/DB Troy Wiegel (5-10, 160, Jr.).

SAN CARLOS is not hurting in the experience department. An amazing 35 lettermen return for Coach Marcos Franco.

Powerful fullback James Phillips, a 5-9, 210-pound senior, will battle for yardage. He's also a major player on defense from his linebacker slot.

The Braves will also rely on OL/LB Ryan Jones (5-10, 190, Sr.), OG/DL Michael Beton (5-11, 240, Sr.), RB/CB Kevin Goode (5-8, 160, Sr.), OT/DT Ethan Randall (6-3, 300, Sr.), RB/LB Kenny Nash (5-8, 160, Sr.), FB/LB Virgil Long (5-10, 180, Jr.), OT/DE Josh Dillon (6-2, 220, Jr.), OT/DT Herschel Elthie (5-9, 215, Jr.) and QB/LB Nathan Perry (5-10, 200, Sr.) to help put some wins on the board this year.

MAYER has 11 letterwinners back from its 1A State Championship team of a year ago. That group includes four returning regulars.

They are B/DB Aaron Want (5-9, 155, Jr.), OL/DE Jon Langdon (6-2, 230, Sr.), B/LB Luke O'Sullivan (5-10, 170, Sr.) and OL/DL Justin Van Horne (5-9, 175, Sr.).

Rick Lashley is the new head coach, after serving previously as an assistant for the Wildcats. Repeating an undefeated, state championship season is a daunting task, but Mayer has a fine football program. And they just might do it.

Senior TB/LB Yoon Kim (6-1, 210) leads a nice contingent of veterans back in uniform at ORME. The Warriors were okay in 2006, finishing with a 4-5 ledger. Better days are just ahead.

Besides Kim, the offense features TE Alike Lemmon (6-5, 185, So.), FB J'Artagnon Coney-Robinson (5-8, 160, Sr.) and TB Spencer Sutherland (6-0, 155, Sr.), in addition to linemen Julian Gradhoff (6-3, 235, Sr.), Buddy Murray (5-11, 295, Sr.) and Michael Lonney (5-10, 175, Sr.).

Junior cornerback Chris Erickson (5-9, 150) is a playmaker in the secondary.

Head Coach Bob Wolf has a dozen lettermen to use as a foundation for a good team at VALLEY LUTHERAN.

The Flames could be proficient in the passing game, with the likes of QB Jacob Krause throwing the pigskin. Krause is a 6-3, 190-pound senior.

His primary targets figure to be WR Ben Fontes (6-3, 175, Jr.), TE John Olivarez (5-10, 150, Sr.) and TE Aaron Krause (5-9, 160, So.).

When Valley Lutheran runs the ball, Adam Smith (6-1, 195, Sr.), Adam Wolf (5-11, 165, Sr.), Cliff Tubbs (5-8, 160, Sr.) and Austin Cook (5-10, 202, So.) will be highlighted.

Two-way linemen Zack Plucas (5-10, 180, Sr.), Chris Osborn (6-3, 265, Jr.), Craig Bear (6-1, 245, Sr.) and Ian MacMillan (5-10, 165, So.) will handle the physical play in the trenches.

"We are new to 1A football, but I am sure there are many talented players for us to get to know," says GILA BEND Head Coach Rich Metcalf.

For his Gila Monsters to have success, the following players will have to have solid seasons: RB/LB Ed Gonzalez (5-10, 165, Sr.), WR/LB Luis Rodriguez (6-0, 175, Sr.), OL/DL Pete Nevarez (5-10, 200, Sr.), WR/DB Wyatt Perry (6-0, 155, Sr.), RB/LB Arsenio Onofre (5-8, 165, Jr.), OL/DL Israel Herrera (5-11, 215, Sr.), OL/DL Ryan Gonzalez (5-10, 160, Jr.), QB/DB Freddie Burkhardt (5-10, 155, So.) and WR/DB Luis Ortiz (5-7, 145, So.).

Maybe Metcalf and crew will find 8-man football to their liking.

Remembering Dick Stuart

By David Kukulski

Next year, I'll celebrate my 30th year in the sports publishing business. Over the course of my career, I've worked with many school administrators, athletic directors and coaches at the high school level, as well as athletic department managers, sports information personnel and coaches at the collegiate level.

And I've worked with a number of top-flight people in advertising sales. If you're not in the publishing business, it would be nearly impossible for you to know just how important advertisers are to any publication.

When Barry Sollenberger started this magazine 37 years ago, he called upon his business friends and acquaintances for advertising support. He called school district officials, athletic directors and coaches. He relied on school booster clubs for the dollars to breathe life into a magazine like this.

And the community responded! Two years after Barry's death, people like Janie Riddle, Bill Bailey, Jerry Kleven, Cathy Downing, Dave Young, Leroy Gaintner, Mark Matsock, Rich Reid, Michael Lewis, Paul Edge, Kris Hjerpe, Dave Berman and Larry Markichevich – just to name a few – are still supporting this magazine that means so much to so many people.

And so are officials from school districts and individual high schools. From the fall of 1991 until the end of 2006, that was Dick Stuart's specialty.

Together we worked on State Championship Programs in Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, California, Nevada and Connecticut. I put the books together after Dick sold most of the ads.

A call just up the street to his beloved Brophy Prep was often followed by one to Denver, San Diego, Las Vegas or Hartford. Dick was absolutely relentless.

He believed in these publications. He knew we needed advertisers to keep them alive. And so he pushed on.

Call after call.

"Dave, why won't this guy call me back? Don't these people understand we need them? I think she's avoiding my calls!"

If you're going to sell advertising at any level, you'd better be ready for rejection. It isn't pleasant, but you must accept it as part of the job. You must be willing to make enough calls to reach your goals. It's a numbers game.

Dick was always willing to go the extra mile to help our publications get to press. As the years went by, regardless of his health, he kept making those calls.

Thanks, Dick, for everything you did.

Your contributions to high school sports in Arizona, to ASU, to the Fiesta Bowl and so on were truly outstanding.

And, I of all people know, the only reason Dick isn't working the phones right now is we lost him on December 16, 2006, when he suddenly passed away at the age of 69.

Our company is looking for an advertising salesman. Eventually, we'll find someone. But that person will never replace Dick!

Familiar Names Dominate 2006 Finals

But Newcomers Centennial, Cactus Shadows Emerge as First-Time Champs

It's off to the races for Coolidge running back T.J. White (#3) in the Bears' 28-21 victory over Wickenburg in the 3A title game. Cactus Shadows wide receiver Kyle Watkins (#44) turned in one of the most dynamic performances in Arizona football state finals history, grabbing 21 passes, as the Falcons upended Higley, 28-14, in the 4A-2 finale (Paynter Pics).

By David Kukulski

If you follow prep football in Arizona, you're familiar with the teams from Hamilton, Saguario, Coolidge, Thatcher and Mayer.

Hamilton ... the Huskies have been in the big-school finals five of the last six years, winning the top prize three times.

Saguario ... a couple of appearances in the finals, with one state football crown before 2006.

Coolidge ... this 3A powerhouse now has seven titles in 10 championship games ... will be going for a Three-Peat in 2007.

Thatcher ... six championships in eight title game appearances ... the Eagles constantly battle for 2A honors.

Mayer ... two championships, seven finales in school history for the Wildcats.

So, when the 2006 season ended and the AIA awarded these clubs their beautiful trophies, it was a terrific accomplishment.

It was a proud moment in school history.

But, for the administrators, faculty, students, coaches, players and fans at Centennial and Cactus Shadows, last season was a breakthrough year.

You see, the Coyotes and Falcons, respectively, had never walked away with a state championship trophy in football before.

Not only that, but Coach Richard Taylor at Centennial and Coach Chad DeGrenier at Cactus Shadows guided their teams to perfect seasons – Centennial was 14-0 and Cactus Shadows finished 15-0. The only other undefeated prep football team last year was 1A champ Mayer.

So, congratulations to all seven champions. You gave us a lot of thrills in 2006. The quality of play continues to improve in the Grand Canyon State.

And, to Centennial and Cactus Shadows, welcome to the party! Now the fun really starts – trying to defend those titles.

Let the games begin!

HONOR.

It's not just about winning. Respect. Trustworthiness. Responsibility. Fairness. Good citizenship. They all lead to victory. The Arizona Cardinals support these ideals and salute the high school players who demonstrate them on and off the field.

Is This THE Year for the Cardinals?

WHISENHUNT TAKES OVER AS HEAD COACH

Obviously, the Cardinals didn't enjoy much success in 2006. Fans of professional football teams that win five and lose 11 have very little to celebrate, with rare exceptions.

Management wasn't too thrilled either. At season's end, Coach Dennis Green was fired and the Ken Whisenhunt era began. Certainly, Whisenhunt has a great reputation in the league, having served on the coaching staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers for the past six years. And he brought along Russ Grimm to serve as his assistant head coach; Grimm is widely regarded as one of the top offensive line coaches in football.

It isn't as though the Cardinals don't have talent. In fact, that shaky 5-11 ledger could easily have been 8-8 or better, if Arizona had just closed out some games they let get away. Bitter early-season home losses to St. Louis (16-14), Kansas City (23-20) and Chicago (24-23) left fans shaking their heads in disbelief as they exited brand-new University of Phoenix Stadium.

Can they get it right? Start with second-year quarterback Matt Leinart. Green benched veteran Kurt Warner when the club started slowly. In the middle of a devastating seven-game losing streak, Leinart got the nod. He completed nearly 57% of his passes, threw for over 2,500 yards, but finished with more interceptions (12) than touchdowns (11). Warner contributed another 1,377 yards passing, but he was far from spectacular.

Leinart must become the quarterback the Cardinals envisioned when they drafted him. And the sooner the better. Because the franchise needs a great quarterback so badly, Arizona fans are hoping Leinart can grow up quickly.

He has a great pair of wideouts in Anquan Bolden and Larry Fitzgerald. They combined for 152 receptions for 2,149 yards and 10 six-pointers in 2006. And their numbers were down! Remember Fitzgerald missed nearly half of last season due to injury. In 2005, the pair totaled 205 catches for 2,811 yards and 17 TDs.

Former Indianapolis Colt Edgerrin James was signed last year to energize the rushing attack. The results were so-so. Yes, James gained his 1,000 yards, but he averaged just 3.4 yards per carry and his long-gainer of the year was 18 yards.

Everyone knows Arizona has been extremely disappointing in the offensive line. Big Leonard Davis left for Dallas and the Cardinals brought in a couple of notable free agents (Mike Gandy and Al Johnson), along with first-round pick Levi Brown of Penn State to shore things up. It looks as though second-year pro Deuce Lutui is a keeper on the OL too.

Grimm just needs to work his magic with this group.

Defensively, the Cardinals gave up 24 points and 349 yards in total offense per game. While not horrible, Whisenhunt will be looking for substantial improvement here too.

Veteran safety Adrian Wilson is a playmaker and

The Cardinals went with rookie Matt Leinart at quarterback for most of the 2006 campaign. The former Heisman Trophy winner had his moments, throwing for 2,547 yards and 11 scores. But, for Arizona to post a winning record and have a shot at the playoffs, Coach Whisenhunt and crew will need Leinart to improve on those numbers in 2007 (Paynter Pics).

was named to the Pro Bowl last season for the first time in his career. He wound up with 82 tackles, five sacks, four interceptions and two fumble recoveries on the year.

Who else will step up? Will youngsters like LB Gerald Hayes, LB Karlos Dansby, CB Antrel Rolle, DT Darnell Dockett, S Aaron Francisco, etc. get the job done? Can DE Bertrand Berry make it through a full season and avoid major injuries? Defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast was retained by Whisenhunt and is widely respected.

NFL football is known as a field-position game. Can the defense come together and give Leinart and that evolving Arizona offense a short field to the red zone?

How about a few smiles for those Big Red boosters leaving that beautiful stadium this year?
